Mr. and Mrs. George Bronn of Lincoln, a brother of C. A. Bronn and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bronn of Long Beach, Calif., a nephew, visited at the C. A. Bronn home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Verle Stock are parents of six-month-old John Charles. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wendt who are happy to have their first grandchild. Mrs. Stock was Dorothy Wendt.

Those going by train to Brighton, Colo., Dec. 1 to attend the funeral of Mrs. Opal Abbott were Mrs. Henry Wendt, Mrs. Robert Kunz and their father, Alton Miller. Mrs. Abbott's mother was Mr. Miller's sister. They stopped off for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Linder at Loveland but found them not at home. They report that the Linders have bought a home and will move there soon. The group returned from their trip Dec. 6.

Mrs. T. G. Allen and daughter Carol of Maysville, Mo., arrived at the home of her sister, the Eldon Mendenhalls. They came Friday night and left early Monday morning.

Dec. 11, Mrs. Lulu Kunz celebrated her 82nd birthday. Having dinner at her home were Mrs. Elda Lenz, Marie Rosenow, Miss Minnie Kunz and Mr. and Mrs. Vic Schomaker, Vickie and Marjorie.

Rev. and Mrs. Walter Lenz of Amherst called on Mrs. Elda Lenz Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Rosenow and three children and Vickie Schomaker went to Lincoln on Sunday to hear The Messiah.

Guests at the Donald Fredenburg home for Sunday dinner were Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Einger and Mrs. Gussie Jockens. Rickie and Robbie Clements were honored on their 10th birthday Sunday by having dinner at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy L. Clements. Also present were their other grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Horstman of Casper, Wyo., and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Clements and brother Gregg. Mrs. Horstman arrived Thursday and will stay through Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armstrong went to Havelock to visit his brother, Glenn Armstrong, who has not been well for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Schomaker and son Vick went to call on the family of Mrs. James Sedlak of Plattsmouth last Saturday. Others there were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cary, Raymond Schomaker of Council Bluffs and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Schomaker of Lincoln. Mrs. Sedlak was the mother of Mrs. Arnold Schomaker.

Several visitors were noted in the congregation at the EUB Church Sunday, including Mr. and Mrs. Archie Miller of Alvo, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eicherman of Greenwood, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Lenz of Amherst, Mrs. Edmond Steiner and children. Several of these came to wedding Sunday. Special music for church services was the eight clarinet girls and their leader, Sanford Clements.

Pastor James Hansen of the Methodist Church arrived home Friday as usual from Kansas City where he is attending school. A Wesleyan student, Clark Vier, spent the day Sunday at the Hansen home. His home is at Hammond, Wis., and he is a friend of the Hansens. Special music was a solo by Mrs. Robert Oldfield at church.

A family dinner was held at the Christian Church Sunday at the supper hour, after which an hour of singing, mostly of Christmas carols was enjoyed. Next Sunday, the Christmas program will be held. The Ladies Council will meet next Friday with Mrs. Arley Hill as hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clements were in Lincoln Sunday to call on relatives.

Among those attending The Messiah Sunday at the Coliseum in Lincoln were the Edmund Steiner family, the Richard Pratt family and the Lester Rosenows.
