Legion-Auxiliary Stage Christmas Party Thursday

Thursday evening the Forty and Eight club rooms was the scene of holiday charm and enjoyment, the occasion being the annual joint observance by the Legion post and Auxiliary of the Christmas season.

The rooms were tastefully arranged and very attractive in the Christmas colors.

The dinner was a covered dish affair, featured by two large turkeys as main attraction.

Singing of the Christmas carols was enjoyed with Father Bob Hoogson of St. Luke's church and Miss Mildred Hall leading the singing.

One of the features of the evening was the magic show presented by Rev. G. E. Seybold in his usual clever manner that kept the audience on their toes to try and solve the many smoothly presented acts.

The remainder of the evening was spent in a games party enjoyed to the utmost by group.
