

Shrine Chanters Pay Visit To The Masonic Home

Sunday was a gala day at the Nebraska Masonic Home, marking the annual pilgrimage of the Tangier Shrine Chanters of Omaha to this city.

Walter Munson is director of the Chanters, assisted by Harold Deadman.

The tour of the Chanters included visits at the various hospitals in Omaha including the Veterans Administration.

The Masonic Home was reached at 6 p.m. last evening and here the Chanters enjoyed supper with the residents that was very much enjoyed by all of the party.

The concert was a feature that the residents of the home will long appreciate through the offerings of this fine musical group.

The days tour closed with programs at St. Catherine's and St. Joseph hospitals in Omaha.

3 Attorneys from Here Attend Meet

As a part of its program for continuing legal education, the Nebraska State Bar Association conducted an Institute on Federal Taxation in Omaha Dec. 16 and 17.

Principal emphasis was on tax aspects of partnership income, tax problems relating to real estate transactions and probate, but included tax ideas for farmers and businessmen. The purpose of the institute is to familiarize lawyers with new developments in the field of taxation which will affect their clients in making their 1960 tax returns.

More than 175 lawyers registered for the institute, among them Walter H. Smith, James Begley and Florence Fouchek of Plattsmouth.

How Do You Measure Prescription Prices?

The only accurate yardstick for measuring the cost of prescribed medicine is the amount of cure your money buys.

When you consider how today's wonder drugs lessen the severity and shorten the duration of illness, you realize nothing worth so much to you costs so little.
