

Homemade Christmas Candies Please

Christmas season is often the incentive for candy making; a box of homemade candy makes an ideal gift for the sweet-toothed friend. Here are some recipes for sweets—some old, some new. Take your pick and a merry, merry Christmas season to you all.

Glazed Nuts and Fruits

1/2 cup white corn syrup
1/2 cup sugar
2 tablespoons hot water
Boil all ingredients until syrup bubbles in cold water. Keep hot in double boiler. Dip in nuts and fruits one at a time, taking out on the point of fork and laying on oiled paper.

Tutti Frutti Balls

Put through the food chopper 1/2 pound each of layers figs, seeded raisins, pitted dates and pecans or almonds; also 2 ounces of candied orange peel. Blend all together and put through the chopper again, using the finest of blades until the mixture is as smooth as possible. Form into balls the size of a cherry, moistened with syrup from canned fruit if mixture is too stiff. Thicken with rolled and sifted macaroons if too soft. Dip in melted chocolate.

Fudge

4 cups sugar
1 stick of butter
5 tablespoons cocoa
4 tablespoons white Karo
1 pint milk
2 cups nut meats
1 small can of Hipolite or marshmallow creme
1 teaspoon vanilla
Mix sugar and cocoa thoroughly. Add milk and Karo. Put on stove, add butter. Cook until on stove, add butter. Cook until on stove, add butter. Cook until on stove, add butter. Cook until on stove, add butter.

Pecan Pralines

3 cups sugar
2 tablespoons butter
3/4 cup milk
1 cup pecans
1 teaspoon vanilla
Mix 2 cups of sugar and milk and let boil gently. Meanwhile caramelize the remaining cup of sugar in a heavy saucepan, stirring to prevent burning, and when all lumps have dissolved, pour slowly into the first mixture, stirring constantly. Cool until forms a soft ball when dropped in cold water. Remove from fire, add butter and cool until lukewarm. Add nuts and vanilla. Beat until creamy and drop by spoonfuls on a buttered platter.

Arthur Motley, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, said: "The most revolutionary movement in the world is represented right here in America. Dictatorship, political chaos, are old hat. Our system is new."
