

MERRY CHRISTMAS

FFA-FHA CROWNING—The 1960 King and Sweetheart of the local chapters of the FFA and FHA are shown being crowned at the annual Future Farmers-Future Homemakers Christmas party and dance at the high school Monday night. Connie Jo Pfeifer was crowned Sweetheart by the 1959 Sweetheart, Dorothy Farris. King Bill Farris was crowned by Arlan Cundall, last year's King.

Miss Pfeifer, Farris Honored By FHA, FFA

The annual FFA — FHA Christmas party was held Monday evening in the High School Gymnasium.

The highlight of the party was the crowning of the FHA King and FFA Sweetheart.

Bill Farris was named FHA King and Connie Jo Pfeifer was named FFA Sweetheart. They were crowned by last year's royalty Arlan Cundall and Dorothy Farris.

King attendants were Jerald Helm, Roger Mrasek and Bill Serf.

Sweetheart attendants were Linda Range, Gay Gansemer and Janice McKinney.

Crown bearer was Debbie Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Stewart.

Square dancing and social dancing furnished the evenings entertainment.

Refreshments were furnished by the FFA.

Monday's A Holiday

Monday will be a holiday here for almost everyone, with just a few persons performing essential services on duty throughout the day and the drugstores being open from 8 a.m. to noon.

Most businesses will be closed, along with the bank, County Courthouse, City Offices, Post Office (except for delivery of "Special Delivery" mail), and schools.

It'll be business-as-usual Tuesday morning.

CORRECTION

The Journal in Monday's edition incorrectly identified a member of the Mrs. Jaycees, shown giving treats to youngsters after the Jaycees' free Christmas movie last Saturday at Cass Theater.

The lady pictured was Mrs. Charles Grosshans, not Mrs. Chas. Warga as the caption incorrectly said.

Henry Albert Home Is Judged Best-Decorated

The Henry Albert home, 723 3rd Ave., was judged best-decorated home here this Christmas season, the Chamber of Commerce announced this week after judging by a board of three judges.

Receiving 100 points, the Albert home was considered most attractive by Rev. Vernard Utley, Fr. Mike Pleskac and Fr. Robert Hodgson.

Second place was awarded to the Irvin Steve Allison home, 1520 Valley St., with 90 points and third to the Glen Diggs home, 118 So. 9th, with 85 points.

In the scoring, the three winners which receive $25, $15 and $10 prizes, were awarded points in order for artistic merit, originality, lighting techniques and ingenuity, as follows:
