The letter, addressed to the Council by Paul Fauquet, a Council by Paul Fauquet, a During 1960 of the Commission said in part: " 'It is the recommendation of the City Planning Commission. addressed to the Mayor and City Council of the City of Plattsmouth, Nebraska, that no new trailer court licenses be issued at the present time and that no permits be granted for expansion of the existing trailer courts. It is the intention of the Planning Commission that this order be effective within all territory to which the city can make it effective.

"The thought of the latter part of the quotation is that to the extent that the City can regulate beyond the City limits, it is felt that they should do so with respect to the Issuance of authority for additional trailer houses. This recommendation is made because of the acute tax situation in Plattsmouth and the feeling that occupants of trailer houses generally are not paying $3,000; autos $800; businesses taxes in proportion to the expenses created, particularly in the fields of education.'

Fire Dept. Had 45 Alarms

Plattsmouth's Volunteer Fire Department answered 45 alarms in 1960, the annual report of Fire Chief Joe Kruntorad shows. This compared with 41 alarms in 1959.

Total estimated loss from fire in Plattsmouth was $9,140 up from $5,625 in 1959) and in the surrounding fire protection district it was $22,700 (coincidentally exactly the same as the 1959

The latter figure included $8,000 loss to a semi-truck and load of feed and tallow which burned on Highway 66.

The 1960-1959 figures: City of Plattsmouth Fires in 1960: homes (10). autos (3), businesses (4), barns
