Busy Homemakers Have Workshops

The Busy Homemakers 4-H Club enjoyed a night at the Mynard EUB Church basement with Rheda Boardman and Judy Cole as hostesses.

Special enjoyment was had by the girls who joined in various workshops.

Three girls in a kitchen, made delicious cinnamon rolls. After the baking was completed the girls themselves judged the rolls.

The younger girls had a workshop on making cinnamon toast and cocoa. The girls were happy to hear we will have a workshop at the next meeting on making white bread.

Following the cooking, the meeting was called to order by President Mary Kay Hendrix. It was decided that the 4-H girls would have a roller skating party on Friday, Feb. 27, at Nebraska City.

The next meeting will be at the Mynard EUB Church basement with the hostesses, Mary Kay Hendrix and Judy Harvey.

Following the meeting several girls gave demonstrations. After the meeting the girls enjoyed the products of their workshops—reporter, Marilyn Vin-duska.
