Reserves' Point Total High For Season in 61-46 Victory

Plattsmouth High's cage Reserves, scoring their highest point total of the season, defeated Ralston's Reserves here Friday night, 61-46.

They had to come back from 9-13 and 24-28 deficits at the end of the first two periods to win.

John Carr, senior playing with the Reserves in an official game for the first time after a whole season of scrimmaging against the varsity, tallied 15 points and led the second half surge.

Carr got 10 points in the last quarter.

Dan Schultz got eight of his 11 points that quarter too.

Butch McGraw scored 11 also and Larry Cadwell hit 10.

It was the eighth win in 12 games for Coach Gall Heffelfinger's team. Its previous high point total was in a 46-46 win over Blair.

Ashland Here; Ralston Is 88-63 Winner

Plattsmouth High's basketball team completes its home schedule Tuesday night with Ashland the opposition.

Game time is 8 o'clock. The reserve squads meet at 6:30.

Ashland, runnerup to Hooper in the recent Platte Valley Conference Tournament at Wahoo, is led by 6-2 Jim Hooper who set a record by scoring 30 points in his team's losing effort in the final. Bob Pollard the ace who missed the tourney because of illness and Mick Washburn, a consistent scorer all season.

Ashland, which dropped the Platte tourney final, 58-55, avenged that defeat Friday night by tripping Hooper, 52-50.

Plattsmouth Tuesday night will be seeking its second win of the season in 14 games.

Friday night here, Ralston showed why it won the Ak-Sar-Ben Conference Tournament in an 88-63 victory.

It was a game in which Plattsmouth started and finished well only to fall prey to terrific Ralston firepower in the middle quarters.

Bill Nettleman got six points the first quarter and Roger Beverage five as Plattsmouth got off to an 18-14 lead.

Ralston came back with a horrifying 31-point second quarter as its superior poise and finesse paid off big. Bernie Miller, the center, scored 16 points that quarter.

The third period was more of the same, Ralston adding 30 points for what may be some kind of record for scoring in consecutive quarters.

The result was a 75-43 lead going into the last quarter, which the Blue Devils won, 20-13.

Miller led all scorers with 23 and John McPherson, his front line mate, had 22. Tom Lind an elusive guard scored 17 for Ralston.

For Plattsmouth, Beverage and Denny Campbell were tops with 13 and Nettleman added 11, his best effort this season.

Besides hitting 30 field goals and 28 free throws, Ralston also missed 16 free throws.

Hot-Shooting Syracuse Beats Indians, 74-54

Weeping Water ran into precision-shooting Syracuse Friday night at Waverly and lost the Southeast Eight Tournament basketball title, 74-54.

Avenging an earlier decisive loss to the Indians, Syracuse broke away from an 18-18 first quarter tie to lead at the half, 40-26.

Weeping Water won the third, quarter, 18-16, but the Rockets, defending Class B state champions won going away with an 18-10 advantage in the last quarter.

Syracuse turned the trick Friday night with torrid shooting. Led by Bill Wittly who netted 22 points the first half, the Rockets connected for 24 goals in 40 tries for the game.

Wittly totaled 33 points to best Weeping Water's Carl Voyles in a scoring duel.

Voyles had 25 points but could hit only one goal in the second quarter when Syracuse collapsed its zone defense around the 6-8 center and themselves spurted away to a 14 point lead.

In the third-place game, Seward Concordia defeated Waverly, 61-50.

The line score: Weeping Water 18 8 18 10-54 Syracuse 18 22 16 18-74

Poor Listener

An irate wife just finished giving her husband a sharp lecture. "And don't argue with me either!" she snapped, at the end of the tirade.

"Argue," replied the poor man, "Why, I haven't said a word."
"No, but you were listening in a most unpleasant way."

BACK-TO-SCHOOL FOR SCHOOL TEACHERS— ANOTHER AK-SAR-BEN ACTIVITY

Every year, 30 Nebraska teachers are given the opportunity for advanced, post-graduate study under Ak-Sar-Ben's vast scholarship program. In addition, 20 county extension agents and 20 vocational agriculture instructors add to their education through Ak-Sar-Ben scholarships.

Through the years, thousands of Nebraska's young people have been given a helping hand in getting an education by Ak-Sar-Ben. More than 200 Ak-Sar-Ben scholarships are awarded every year. In addition, there are scholarships for agricultural judging teams, and loan funds for needy students.

For years to come, students in Nebraska will profit from the additional training Ak-Sar-Ben has made possible for their teachers. For years to come, the whole state will profit from the educational opportunities Ak-Sar-Ben has offered thousands of young people.

Yesterday... today... tomorrow — Nebraska is a better place because of the Ak-Sar-Ben programs made possible solely by the revenues from thoroughbred racing.
