dent six years; is a member of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, American Legion and Masonic Lodge.
In the Founders Day program, Mrs. Dick March read devotions, Mrs. Robert Faris lighted candles and a trio of Mrs. Donna Catron, Mrs. Darlene Miller and Mrs. Reneva Edwards sang.

Mrs. Roberts was also a guest. Mrs. Robert Faris was presented her Past President's Pin by President Mrs. Tom Solomon.
A discussion of Legislative Bills was led by Lebens, Platts-mouth city attorney. The PTA group voted preferences and a report will be sent to the Legislature.

The Talent Sprout Show was discussed. It will be held March 17 at the High School Auditorium. Coffee and cookies will be served and home made candy will be sold.

The PTA voted to purchase basketball equipment and a bookcase for the school and to send $5 as a Founders Birthday Gift to the National PTA Congress.

By-laws were discussed and suggestions made for changes. Janice Magill's 3rd grade class won the room count for most parents present.

Mrs. Bill Hawkins, Mrs. Harold Lebens and Mrs. R. C. Behmer were chosen as a nominating committee.

Cookies and coffee were served by Mrs. Delores Ellington, Mrs. Marge Beasley, Mrs. Truth Buffington, Mrs. Behmer and Mrs. Gayle Buck.
