FORE!—Robert Tritzsch and Mrs. Jane Ofe created a brief sensation when they completed their showing of sportswear by teeing two golf balls and driving them into the Style Show audience Thursday night. The golf balls turned out to be fake but the clothes were real for spring and summer comfort.

FETCHING—Bobbie Dee Alm, 2, and her mother, Mrs. Robert Alm, were a fetching pair in the Style Show Thursday night. Bobbie Dee modeled a tweed coat with straw hat. Her mother showed a wool coat and pill box hat.

Obituary

Vesta Clark

Vesta Clark was born May 16, 1872, at Chillicothe, Mo., the fourth child of Elgin and Olive Kenady. On Feb. 8, 1891, she was married to Charles G. Clark. She died March 16 at the home of her daughter, Lydia Borne, at Hulet, Wyo.

After the death of her husband in 1909, she served for 24 years as chief operator for the telephone company in Union and for two years at Murray. Following her retirement in 1938, she made her home with her daughters.

She was a member of the Baptist Church in Union and continued her church activities wherever she lived. She was preceded in death by her husband, a son Everett, 2, a sister and three brothers.

She is survived by a sister, Rozella Clark of Union, and three daughters, Olive Rutledge of Nehawka, Lydia Borne of Hulet, Wyo., and Mildred Newton of Plattsmouth. Also surviving are seven grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were March 19 at the Union Baptist Church with the Rev. A. L. Embree and Rev. David Bloomquist officiating.

Mrs. Margaret Carr sang and organist was Edwin Wolfe.

Flowerbearers were Mrs. No-reen Porter and Mrs. Sterling Ross. Pallbearers were Ted Clark, Fred Clark, Paul Long, Sterling Ross, Everett Newton and Everett Rutledge.

Burial was in West Union Cemetery with Lett Funeral Home of Nebraska City in charge.

Everette M. Dirksen, Senator (R., Ill.): "The Democrats are trying to talk the country into a depression. And if they are not careful, they'll do it."
