Mr. and Mrs. William Molck

William Molck Weds Anne Garst of Council Bluffs, Ia.

Baskets of white pom poms, carnations, and gladiolas decorated the chancel for the marriage of Miss Anne Garst, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Garst of Council Bluffs, Iowa and Larry Molck, son of Mrs. William Molck, of Plattsmouth, Saturday evening, March 18th at the First Baptist Church in Co. Bluffs, Ia.

The Rev. Dr. Alan R. Knight officiated at the candle light double ring ceremony.

Miss Joyce Banks of Council Bluffs was vocalist accompanied at the organ by Miss Joyce Myrster.

Candlelighters for the service were Mr. Gary Yopp of Council Bluffs and Steven Molck, brother of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a gown of bouquet taffeta and Alencon lace styled with princess lines and long fitted sleeves. Alencon lace sprinkled with seed pearls framed the soft portrait neckline and continued down the front of the bodice. From the waistline, the lines that floated back to a magnificent cathedral train. The bride's elbow-length silk illusion veil was held by a half crown of interwoven nylon and pearls. She carried an orchid with strophantatis on a white Bible. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

Maid of honor was Karen Hasequist and bridesmaid was Bonnie Tennant. The attendants wore identical sheath dresses of royal blue taffeta, featuring scoop necklines and overskirts poufed out to hip length in front and extending almost to the hemline in the back. Jan Garst served her sister as junior bridesmaid and was attired in a similar blue taffeta dress made for her by the bride. All three attendants wore matching headpieces and carried nosegays of blue and white carnations.
