Mrs. Cass Dies At Masonic Home

Mrs. Emma E. Cass, 75, died at the Nebraska Masonic Home March 28. She had been confined to bed for the past four years.

She was born August 31, 1885 at Obbeville, Ind., the daughter of Joseph and Mary Lou Saxon Freeman. She married Arthur W. Cass Dec. 10, 1910.

They had two adopted sons, Joseph Cass of Fort Bliss, Texas and Richard Cass of Cheyenne, Wyo. who survive.

Mrs. Cass was a pleasant and cheerful person and had many friends even though she suffered a stroke at the age of 25. In 1944 she was severely burned by hot coffee on the legs and has been in the wheel chair since that time.

She and her husband made their home in Lyons, Neb.; he died there in Feb. 1938. She came to Plattsmouth 11 years ago, and entered the Masonic Home through Pilot Lodge No. 240 AF & AM of Lyons.

Funeral services will be at 3:30 Friday at the Caldwell-Linder Chapel, with the Reverend A. L. Embree, pastor of the Methodist Church here, officiating.

Visiting hours are today at the chapel 4-6 and 7-9.

Burial will be at Oak Hill Cemetery, Plattsmouth.

Patricia Guehlstorf, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Guehlstorf, submitted to a tonsillectomy Monday at St. Mary's Hospital in Nebraska City. She is home now and feeling fine.
