News From Jenkins Family In Calif.

News comes from Mr. and Mrs. Estil Jenkins in Burbank, California, former Plattsmouth residents, that their son Larry joined the U. S. Army Oct. 24 last year. He would like to hear from his Plattsmouth friends. His address is:

Pvt. Larry D. Jenkins U. S. 56332510 "B" Battery 2nd OBSN BN 25th Arty., APO 164, New York, New York.

Before entering the service, Larry was an officer for plant protection for Lockheed Aircraft Corp., in Burbank. Before going to California in 1959 he was employed at the Plattsmouth Cleaners. He is a former Plattsmouth Graduate, Class of 1955. His parents operated the Fran & Estil's Cafe on No. 6th St., Plattsmouth.

In Mrs. Jenkins' letter to the Journal, she says "Mr. Jenkins, a former Plattsmouth police officer, was an officer for the Lockheed Aircraft, when on the night of Nov. 4, 1960, on the line of duty was crossing a street in a pedestrian walk when struck, ran over and dragged a distance. At first he was not given much chance for survival. He sustained three compound fractures of the left leg, pelvis bruised and cut, skull fracture, head and ear lacerations, right knee cap torn loose, and other numerous cuts and bruises.

"He made an incomplete recovery from his head injuries with a residual facial paralysis, though slightly improved. He has developed an unusually severe case of osteomyelitis. Although amputation would possibly be the best treatment, his medical advisors plan to make every effort to save the leg in terms of drug.

"Mr. Jenkins is at his home being cared for by his wife and gets around in a wheelchair and some with crutches. Both he and Larry would like to hear from their friends.

"Mr. Jenkins hopes that soon the doctor may let him go for a period of no medication, and hopes to make a trip back to Nebraska before further surgery." They would visit in Plattsmouth with friends and in Auburn with the Dave Morgans, Mrs. Jenkins parents.

"We both wish to thank John Hobscheidt for the subscription to The Journal, as we enjoy reading about our home town."

Union Women Have Guest Day, Mark Music Week

UNION (Special)—The Union Woman's Club observed Music Week and Guest Day, May 2 at the Methodist Church.

The day was beautiful and the attendance was very good.

Mrs. Ruth Stule, president of the club, opened the meeting with the Flag Salute and Club Collect.

As the roll was called by the secretary, Mrs. Myrtle Christensen, each member introduced the guests she had invited to the meeting.

A "thank you" note was read from Mrs. Eunice Balfour who is hospitalized at this time.

The Union Woman's Club will join the Liberty Extension Club for a "Tour," the date to be decided later.

Program Chairman, Mrs. Ruth Todd presented a group of music pupils of Mrs. Gilley of the Nehawka Schools in a program of saxophone, trombone, clarinet, piano and vocal selections.

In the group were Barbara Chandler, Ruth Miller, Thelma Kettelhut, Shirley Ross, Jackie Dodson, Suzanne Balfour, Sandra Stapert, Nancy Ehlers, Nancy Switzer, Connie Cook, Ann Nutzman, Gary Anderson, Neil Balfour, Bill Schlichtemeier, Joyce Fornoff and Barbara Behrens.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered tea table. Mrs. George Steine and Mrs. Clarence Beccard poured.

Hostesses were Mrs. Earl Herman, Iva Mougey, Mrs. John Christensen, Mrs. Lee Faris and Mrs. Roddy.

Wedding Here

A wedding ceremony was performed Friday at the home of Judge J. H. Graves, uniting S. N. Wood of Brilliantine, Ohio, now in service at Lincoln Air Force Base, and Mrs. Dorothy Thelma Goeschel of Lincoln.

Witnesses to the ceremony were Charles E. Downey Lincoln and Mrs. Doris M. Downey, Lincoln.

TWIN SISTERS REACH 95

Greenbrier, Ark.—Twin sisters who came to Arkansas shortly after the Civil War recently celebrated their 95th birthdays.

Because of their age, Mrs. Emma Snow and Mrs. Alice Smith, both widows are not able to visit more than three or four times a year, but talk daily over the telephone.

They were born in Humboldt, Tenn., and came to Faulkner country with their pioneer parents in 1867.

ENGAGED—Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Markussen of Lincoln announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jeanene Arlene, to 2/Lt. Roger R. Wehrbein of Ft. Benning, Georgia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Wehrbein of Plattsmouth. Miss Markussen attended the University of Nebraska and is presently employed with the University. Lt. Wehrbein is a graduate of NU and is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho Fraternity and Alpha Zeta Honorary. He is presently serving with the U. S. Army at Ft. Benning. A fall wedding is planned.

Council of United Church Women Have Fellowship Tea

The Council of United Church Women held their May fellowship Tea May 5, at the Evangelical United Brethren Church at Myrard. Mrs. Melvin Schaefer presided, substituting for Mrs. Wayne Hendrix, opening with a prayer and led in singing of well loved old hymns of the church. Mrs. Roy Cole served as organist.

A vocal trio from the First Presbyterian Church of Plattsmouth sang two numbers, "Spring Is Here Again," and "Bless The Lord O, My Soul," with Mrs. George Jacobs as accompanist. Personnel of the trio is Mrs. Edward Wehrbein, Mrs. Harold Edwards and Mrs. Donald Miller.

Mrs. John Parkening, Plattsmouth, was leader of the responsive ritual service. She was assisted by Mrs. J. W. Taenzler, Mrs. James Chriswiser, Mrs. Jean Maxwell and Mrs. W. L. Heinrich. Mrs. Taenzler also read the closing Litany with responses given by the Four Voices.

Mrs. Newton Sullivan, local Church Council president, introduced Mrs. J. D. Evans of Omaha, who spoke on the theme "The Churches Free and Responsible." Mrs. Evans is Secretary of Christian World Missions. She contrasted the manner in which people now living in East Germany are allowed to worship with the freedom enjoyed in America. She stressed the importance of the realization that as a body of believers we need to join hands and work together in facing decisions vital to the Christian faith. She gave illustrations of life in East Germany, with its puppet government controlling elections, schools and universities, youth organizations and other factors that go into everyday living.

Mrs. Robert McLeod gave the offertory prayer which was followed by the benediction by Mrs. Schaefer. A Fellowship hour and tea was held in the dining room of the church, with ladies of the church hostesses, Mrs. Art Wetenkamp poured.

Eight churches answered roll call, with representatives in attendance from United Presbyterian and Christian churches of Murray, Christian, Presbyterian, St. Paul's E & R and Methodist churches of Plattsmouth and the Christ Lutheran, and Myrard EUB church.
