KEEP IN TOUCH

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cotner departed today for Phoenix, Ariz., where they will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Don Cotner and family, and Joseph Hadraba. The Plattsmouth couple wish to welcome a new granddaughter, Janice Ann Cotner, who was born May 6.

CORRECTION! In Thursday's issue an article gave a name as Mrs. Robert Plybon, pertaining to the death of her father. This name was incorrect. The news item should have read: Earl Record died Saturday, April 29, at Tabor, Ia., and was buried May 2 at Sidney. He was the father of Mrs. Robert Piper.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kopp were weekend guests in Omaha and Council Bluffs, being called there by the death of Mrs. Kopp's brother-in-law, A. W. Veteransnik.

Ed Morris of Ashland and Rex Young of Plattsmouth attended the State Meeting of Nebraska Auctioneers Association at Grand Island Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Wilson and family were dinner guests of Mrs. Abble Webber at Nemaha Sunday. The occasion being the 87th birthday of Mrs. Webber, grandmother of Mrs. Wilson.

Gene Fees, Manager of B & H Shoes, motored to Des Moines, Ia., Sunday and attended the 76th Iowa Shoe Show. About 150 companies showed their new styles for fall.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Giles entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Schade and family, Omaha, and Mr. and Mrs. George C. Sheldon. Birthday greetings to their father were received by telephone from their son, Sheldon, and family in San Diego; and from their daughter, Lois, Mrs. John S. McFarlane, Salinas, Calif.

Albert Funke entered the Methodist Hospital in Omaha Friday morning where he is undergoing observation. He is in room 133.

Amelia Martens and her sister, Miss Henrietta Martens, returned home Saturday from San Francisco, Calif., where they have been vacationing since January. While in the west they visited with Mrs. Pearl Staats, former Plattsmouth teacher for a number of years, who now resides at Mercer Island, a suburb of Seattle, Wash.

Mrs. John Vallery was honored on her birthday Friday at her home when relatives came with gifts, birthday cake and ice cream.

Louisville Seniors Honored at Dinner

LOUISVILLE (Special)—A six o'clock dinner was held Tuesday evening at the Lodge building at the Y.M.C.A. Camp Kitaki honoring the senior class of 1961.

After the supper the class enjoyed games, singing and dancing. Faculty guests present were Supt. and Mrs. Jack Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Mulnix, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Knox, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Bender, and Donald Tietjen. Rev. and Mrs. William McCord were also present.

Hostesses for the dinner party were Mmes. Vesta Welch, Charlotte Stander, June Hendrix, Zelma Sutton, Kathryn Meisinger, Dorothy Heard, Margaret Worthman and Esther Tlustos.

Nehawka Cubs

NEHAWKA (Special) — Sunday was kite flying day for the Cub Scouts at the Richard Stone farm north of Nehawka. The boys did succeed in getting the kites up late in the afternoon after waiting a long time for a breeze.

Several of the boys received awards. Richard Stone received the wolf badge, lion badge and the gold and silver arrows for the lion rank; Richard Fornoff, gold and silver arrow for the wolf rank; Roger Brandt, gold arrow for the bear rank.

Mmes. Oscar Brandt and Ed Stanely are the den mothers, Oscar Brandt is the leader.

James Ulrich Took Architecture Tour

James Ulrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ulrich of Louisville, was one of 29 University of Nebraska architectural students who toured the Chicago area May 3-8 on an annual senior class inspection tour.

Cities visited were Chicago, Racine, Spring Green and Madison in Wisconsin, where they studied the works of Frank Lloyd Wright, Louis Sullivan and Miles Vanderrohe.

The student chapter of the American Institute of Architecture at the University sponsored the trip.
