

State Officer Here For Civic Club Annual Banquet Monday

The Plattsmouth Women's Civic Club held their annual banquet and installation Monday, May 8. The meeting was held at the 40 and 8 Club. There were several distinguished guests present for the affair—among whom were Mrs. Virginia Pickard and Mrs. Mabel Smith from the Omaha Travel and Transport Corporation.

The Plattsmouth Women's Club was also represented by the president and vice president of the organization, Mrs. William Heinrich and Mrs. Dale Phillipot. All of the outgoing officers and committee chairmen were given corsages, and the outgoing officers were presented potted plants by the president, Mrs. George Sarver as she thanked all those who had worked with her this past year.

The entertainment following the dinner was very ably provided by the Sophomore Trio from the High School. They sang two numbers.

The State First Vice President of the Federation of Woman's Clubs, Mrs. George Mechling, was the featured speaker for the evening. She spoke on the Federation and what it stands for, and hopes to accomplish both for the members and the community. Over the past half century and more, the achievements of the Federation have been quite illustrious. Mrs. Mechling mentioned several of these accomplishments among which were: Town beautification, T. B. control and Pure Food and Drug Act, Prison reform, National Parks and Forests establishment, provision for 20,000 scholarships, and $90,000 from the Pennies for Art Fund.

The point that Mrs. Mechling emphasized greatly was the role played by each local club, and how necessary each club is, no matter how small, to the general success of the Federation and its undertaken projects.

After this spirited talk, Mrs. Mechling conducted the ceremony of installation for the incoming officers. Due to pending moves by some of the officers who had therefore tendered their resignations, only two officers were installed. These were President Mrs. Hugh Stander and Treasurer, Miss Naomi Day.

The evening was climaxed by a lecture on Mexico given by Mrs. Mabel Smith who accompanied her talk with beautiful colored slides.

Mrs. Smith brought as her guest, Mr. J. Antonio Zammaripa who represents Pancholona Tours Incorporated from Mexico City. His comments from time to time concerning our arm chair tour of Mexico greatly enhanced the adventure for all of those present.

Missed Shipping Connection Forces Change in Movie

Aviation troubles left Guy Griffin of the Cass Theatre without his scheduled movie for Sunday through Tuesday.

A print was to have been flown to the local exchange of the movie, "Please Turn Over." According to the producers of the film, the film missed connections at an express change and failed to arrive.

The company substituted "Surprise Package" instead of the scheduled movie for the playdates.
