Good News for Hogmen . . .

There's a place for Purina Early Weaning Chow on every Hog Farm

By Don Rix, Manager, Purina Livestock Chows

Recently, Purina Research announced a brand new baby pig product . . . Early Weaning Chow. This product is highly palatable, highly nutritious, highly fortified to protect baby pig health. It's designed for hogmen who are set up to wean pigs at three weeks, but has other uses, too. Those who've tried the new product are enthusiastic about results. Pigs really go for it and that's half the battle, as every hogman knows.

REPORTS ON PURINA EARLY WEANING CHOW RESULTS

In a recent feeding demonstration on the Leo Mattson Farm near Kiester, Minnesota, pigs were put on Early Weaning Chow at an average weight of 10.9 lbs. Just 21 days later they averaged 26.5 lbs., an average daily gain of 3/4 lb. Feed conversion was 1.14 lbs. of feed per lb. gain. Cost per lb. gain was 11.3¢.

In Nebraska poor doing pigs weighing an average of 11 lbs. were put on Early Weaning Chow. In 22 days they averaged 29 lbs. and were off to a fine start. Average daily gain was .82 lb. per head daily, with feed conversion of 1.28 lbs. of feed to make 1 lb. of gain. Feed cost per pound of gain was 12.9¢.

Pigs in an Iowa demonstration went from an average of 11 lbs. to a 31.5 lb. average in just three weeks. They gained an average of 1 lb. on 1.24 lbs. of feed for an average feed cost of 12.02¢ per lb. of gain.

Product has other Uses

Though designed specifically for hogmen who are weaning pigs at three weeks of age, or earlier than usual, Purina Early Weaning Chow may be used for late-farrowed litters, so sows may be moved up in the farrowing schedule. It may be used for orphan pigs or pigs that are small at normal weaning age.

Purina Early Weaning Chow is a product of ten years of intensive research at Purina's Research Farm, Gray Summit, Missouri. Here is another example of the way Purina Research continuously works to bring hogmen improved and new products to help them get ever-better results—and within practical price ranges.

Ask us for complete information on how to feed Purina Early Weaning Chow. You'll find us at the Store with the Checkerboard Sign.
