

Tim's Bar Wins
6th S-Ball Game

Tim's Bar of Plattsmouth ran its Glenwood Softball League record to 2-0 and its season mark to 6-0 Thursday.

Tim's beat Razor Straps of Glenwood, 6-2. Ron Buethe pitched a two-hitter and struck out 13. Merle Dasher led the hitting with three for four. Ken Schroeder's double was the longest hit.

Sunday, Tim's defeated Top Spot Bar, leader of the Omaha American League, 4-3, in Omaha. Doyle LeRoy held the Omaha team hitless through four innings. In trouble in the seventh, a double play pulled him out.

Two runs were in with one out and runners on first and second. Bill McCormick came up with a good fielding play to start the double play.

Dasher led the hitting with two doubles. John Porter also had a double.

Hitting incentive has been offered Tim's by a local barber who said he will give a free haircut for each home run and a cafe promised a steak dinner for each homer.

Tim's players are Dasher, shortstop; McCormick, 2b; Porter, 1b; Al Dietrich, 3b; Ken Schroeder, c; John Blotzer, infielder or outfield; Hodge Eaton, c or outfield; Cliff Tunnell, outfield; Bill Buck, outfield; Hal Gobelman, infielder or outfield; Don Woods, outfield; Ron Buethe, p; Doyle LeRoy, p; and Don Eaton, manager.

Hurst 3rd in State College 100

Jim Hurst of Plattsmouth finished third at :10.3 in the 100 yard dash at last weekend's State Teachers College Track Meet at Kearney.

Hurst also ran the third leg of Peru State's third place finish in the 880-yard relay, turned in 1:34.6; and was fifth in the 220 at :23.1.

Phil Rhodes of Weeping Water placed fifth in the javelin with a toss of 165 feet, 1/2 inch and tied for fifth in the high jump with 5 feet, 8 inches.

Doris Day Has Drama Role in
'Midnight Lace'

Doris Day's performance in "Midnight Lace," the suspense drama in which she stars with Rex Harrison and John Gavin, is a complete change of pace for the famous blonde actress who received her first Academy Award nomination for best actress in the comedy hit, "Pillow Talk."

Doris has a straight dramatic role in "Midnight Lace" which plays Sunday-Tuesday, May 21-23 at Cass Theater here. In her 12-year screen career, Miss Day, unknown except as a band singer before 1948, has become the top feminine boxoffice attraction of motion pictures. The former vocalist with the Bob Crosby, Fred Waring and Les Brown orchestras, she's a favorite recording soloist with disc jockeys from coast-to-coast, with her records always among the best-sellers.

Enacting a highly emotional dramatic role in "Midnight Lace," Doris Day, as the American wife of British financier Rex Harrison, is the target for terror in the most shocking game ever played with a woman's sanity. —Adv.
