1st Communion, May Crowning At St. John's Church Here

Last Sunday, 23 children of St. John's Parish received their First Holy Communion. At Communion time, the "angels" led them, two by two, to the altar. There they received their First Holy Communion from the hands of their pastor, Monsignor Joseph Przdziak.

Sunday evening at 7:30, the annual May Crowning of Our Lady took place at St. John's Church.

It began with a procession of all the grade school children who marched from St. John School to the Church.

The choir girls of the seventh and sixth grades wore blue choir robes and the girls of the graduating class wore red graduation gowns.

Upon entering the church, they formed a color guard for the clergy and the May Queen, Nora Jean Case, and her attendants, Monica Lurkowski and Barbara Brink.

Hymns of devotion to Mary were sung as the May Queen crowned the statue of Our Lady.

Father Myron Pleskac, assistant pastor at St. John's, then delivered a sermon on "Mary, Our Mother." The devotion was concluded by Solemn Benediction.

Monsignor Joseph Przdziak, pastor at St. John's, was celebrant. He was assisted by Father John Kozlik of Cedar Bluffs, Deacon, and Father Pleskac, Subdeacon.

New Members Join Boot and Spur Club

The Boot and Spur 4-H Club gained three new members, Friday night, May 12. They are Linda and Roger Howard and Martha Todd.

Richard Haecke gave a demonstration on the cleaning of a horse and the general care of tack.

The meeting adjourned to the barn where a practical demonstration on the parts of a horse was shown; also showing a colt at halter, saddling, bridling, and mounting a horse properly.

Homemade ice cream was served by the hosts, Richard and Dennis Haecke. A birthday cake honored three birthdays. Those honored were Dennis Haecke, Stevie Hennings and Linda Howard. Dennis Hennings, news reporter.
