Mrs. Thomas Boardman

Miss Heard Weds Thomas Boardman At Louisvillle

LOUISVILLE (Special)—Marriage vows were exchanged May 13, by Norma Jean Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Heard and Thomas W. Boardman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence W. Boardman all of Louisville.

The double ring ceremony was read in the Methodist church at 7:30 p.m. by the Rev. William McCord, before a candlelighted altar flanked by baskets of white gladioli trimmed with blue ribbon.

Tapers were lighted by Kathy Heard, sister of the bride and Heulen Heard, cousin of the bride. Cindy Sue Patton, niece of the bride, was flower girl, and Alan Johnson, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Music was furnished by James Heard, brother of the bride. He sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress of pure white silk organza with jewel encrusted appliques. The long sleeved bodice, featuring a sabrina neckline, narrowed to a slender waist and the voluminous skirt extended into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a jeweled tiara.

Attending the bride were Mrs. Janelle Eastbridge, sister of the bride, who served as matron of honor, and Sandra Doty, a friend, as bridesmaid. They wore identical full skirted dresses of white embroidered nylon over blue taffeta with matching shoes. Their hats were of blue net with velvet bows.

Paul Powell, a friend of the bridegroom served as best man and the groomsmen were Robert Larsen of Omaha. Ushers were Bernard Johnson of Nebraska City and Gary Greebe of Springfield.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors for 150 guests. Punch and coffee were served with the four-tiered wedding cake from a table decorated in pink, blue and white.

After a wedding trip the couple is at home in Elkhorn where Boardman is a serviceman for People's Natural Gas.

COMPARE ORDINARY BREAD WITH NEW WONDER "SOFT WHIPPED"

SEE THE DIFFERENCE

FEEL THE DIFFERENCE

TASTE THE DIFFERENCE

New MAGIC PROCESS Makes Bread Like Cake!

The Wonder Bakers have it . . . a bread that looks like cake . . . tender, creamy-smooth angel food cake! And it's got a heavenly taste you'll love.

The secret's in the magic way it's made. Wonder "Soft Whipped" Bread is made from a batter, not from a dough. A special process mixes and blends this finely measured batter, gently whips it smooth. The result: Wonder "Soft Whipped" Bread gives you perfect texture in every slice—no holes, no streaks! No holes mean no jelly, jam and catsup drips. No streaks mean every bite is smooth, tender and so digestible.

Get a loaf. Try one slice. One bite will tell you: Wonder "Soft Whipped" is the best bread you've ever eaten.
