Tilson-Taenzler Wedding Rites June 4 at Mynard EUB Church

Miss Karen Kay Tilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvadore Tilson, and Mr. Robert B. Taenzler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taenzler, were married June 4 at the Mynard Evangelical United Brethren Church.

The bridegroom's father, assisted by the host pastor Reverend Melvin Shafer, officiated at the eight in the evening wedding service, in the presence of the 250 guests.

The church altar was decorated with white peonies, where the bridegroom's twin sisters, Mary and Margaret Taenzler lighted the white tapers.

Mrs. Roy Cole was organist, and also accompanied the soloist Mrs. Hal McCaw.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in floor length white satin with gored skirt. The empire bodice, scalloped at the neckline, had long sleeves ending in bridal points over the hand. A bow bustle accented the back of the gown. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a tiara studded with pearls. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible. Her jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Miss Tilson made her wedding gown.

Nancy Tilson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Betty Taenzler, sister of the bridegroom, and Marjorie Grosshans. They were attired in alike frocks of mint green silk organza. Each carried an arrangement of red roses and white carnations.

Best man was Jake Taenzler, Jr. of Glenwood, Ia., brother of the bridegroom. Groomsman were Grant Sawyer of Glenwood, Ia., Ronald Tilson, brother of the bride, Ushering were Fred and Terry Tilson, brothers of the bride.

Terry Tilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tilson, was ringbearer.

The bride's mother was attired in a blue-green nylon dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore an orchid and white dress with white accessories. Each mother wore an orchid corsage.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Pat Toman poured coffee, Laurel Ann Stoehr poured punch. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Richard Harold of Chicago, cut and served the cake.

Presiding at the gift table were Mrs. Larry Vallery, Mrs. Fred Tilson and Carol Moyer of Omaha. Elizabeth Yelick was at the guest book.

For her wedding trip to Colorado, the bride chose a blue cotton dress with white lace trim, and white accessories.

The bride is a Plattsmouth graduate, attended one year at Westmar College, LeMars, Ia., and is a student nurse at Methodist Hospital, Omaha.

Mr. Taenzler taught Junior High in the Glenwood, Iowa School. He will attend college in Greeley, Colo. this summer. He attended the Plattsmouth Schools; is a graduate of the Glenwood High School; attended Peru State Teachers College for four years where he received his BS Degree in Education. He is to teach in the Glenwood High School in the fall.
