Mrs. Gobelman Is DAR Hostess At Dinner Monday

Fontenelle Chapter DAR met in the Fellowship Room at the Methodist Church June 26. The retiring Regent, Mrs. Mollie Gobelman, was hostess at a 6:30 p.m. dinner for chapter members and guests.

The tables were beautifully decorated with vases of red, white and blue flowers. Alternating with the vases of flowers were small holders for two flags (the fifty star U. S. Flag and the blue and white DAR Flag). The drum nut cups and favors were also in patriotic colors.

Seated at the head table with Mrs. Gobelman, was the newly elected Regent, Mrs. Elsie Wiles, and three state officers, State Regent Mrs. Grant A. Ackerman; Miss Erma Jean Croft, editor of the DAR State Bulletin and Mrs. W. M. Folger, state chairman of Insignia.

Other guests were Mrs. Milton Scott, wife of the Methodist Minister, Mrs. E. C. Giles, a member of Jonathan Cass Chapter; Mrs. Paul Jahrig, Mrs. James Cook and Mrs. Robert Lorence of Santa Barbara, Calif.

The dinner was prepared and served by the Naomi Circle of the Methodist Church.

After the dinner the Regent called for a short business meeting. The ritual was given, the secretary and treasurer reports were read and the correspondence was read. The Regent's report was read. The President General's letter. This closed the year's work.

The visiting State Regent was asked to install the newly elected officers.

State officers were asked to speak; the two chairmen gave short talks about their departments and material they could recommend for next year's chapter programs.

The State Regent spoke on America Patriotism. She told of the need of a positive American Belief, and devotion to safeguard American Freedom and a Free Enterprise System of Economics.
