—Class of '31

The reunion went to Carroll Sutton, Jacksonville, Fla. The prize for the largest family went to Ruth Rotter Toman and the prize for the newest addition to their family went to Jack Troop. Other class members coming from a distance were John Gal-loway, Fallbrook, Calif., Merle McCrary, Burbank, Calif., and George Stoll, Seattle, Wash.

The evening's festivities started with a social hour at 5:30, and a call to order by Jack Troop, vice president of the class, to start the dinner hour at 7. A dinner was prepared and served by the Ladies of the Altar Society of the St. John's Church.

The Toastmaster of the evening festivities was very cleverly and ably handled by James Begley.

A welcoming speech was given by Mayor Grant Roberts.

Maxine Cloidt presided at roll call, each class member giving a brief sketch of himself and his family and introducing their husband or wife. Correspondence was read by James Begley from the class members and teachers unable to attend.

The faculty members, who were also guests, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rothert, Mrs. Pearl Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reeder, Dr. and Mrs. R. Foster Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kvasnicka gave short talks and introduced their wives.

Everyone participated in a group of school songs and yells lead by Edward Howard, accompanied at the piano by Lucille Albert Wiles.

The main address of the evening was given by Dr. R. Foster Patterson, Dean of the School of Business Administration at the University of South Dakota, Former PHS Teacher and Principal here from 1927 to 1935. Dr. Patterson's speech was truly an inspiration to all.

The Souvenir Reunion Book was dedicated to the memory of George Lepert.

Visiting among class members, teachers and those who attended the open house completed the evening and everyone departed expressing thanks to the members of the committee for a very enjoyable evening.

The members of the Reunion Committee for the class of 1931 are as follows: General Chairman, Vivian Moore Tunnell; Co-Chairman, Neita Wilson Wondra; Secretary, Vivian Moore Tunnell; Treasurer, Neita Wilson Wondra; Entertainment Maxine Cloidt, Chairman James Begley, Master of Ceremonies.

Decorations, Rose Ferrie Ulrich, Chairman, Marie Lutz, Ruth Toman; Catering, Katherine Hild Wehrbein, Chairman, Edward Howard, Chester and Lucille Wiles; Memory Table Richard Spangler, Chairman, Jack Troop; Publicity, Richard Spangler; Welcoming Committee, Maxine Cloidt, James Begley, Punch Bowl, Katherine Wehrbein and Edward Howard.

$100 Fine for Reckless Driving

Ronald H. Rogers of the Louisville Missile Base entered a plea of "guilty" to wilful reckless driving Wednesday and received a fine of $100 and had his drivers license suspended for 3 months, in County Court here.

Rogers was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Joe Kruntorad Saturday evening after the Rogers vehicle was in collision with a car driven by George J. Sprier here.

After the impact, the Rogers vehicle continued for three blocks and came to rest between a tree and pole. Roger's car received major damage. Rogers suffered a fractured nose and a passenger, Ronald L. Mount, is still in Offutt Hospital.

None of the occupants of the Sprier car, which was south-bound into Plattsmouth, was injured.

Winscot Buys Skelly Service Station

George O. Winscot has bought the Skelly Service Station on South Chicago Avenue from Al Blair, he announced today.

It will be known as Winscot's Skelly Service. Winscot will continue to operate his tank wagon service.
