

Mrs. Henry Alfrey

Potts-Alfrey Wedding Rites At Weeping Water Sunday

WEeping WATER (Special)—The First Methodist Church in Weeping Water was the scene of the 4 p.m. wedding of Miss Dorothy Elaine Potts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Potts of Weeping Water to Henry Alfrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Alfrey of Louisville, July 30.

The Rev. Staley Hackley officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar flanked by two large baskets of white gladiolus and pink carnations.

Miss Becky Traum of Fairbury, organist accompanied Linda Potts of Clear Lake, Iowa, cousin of the bride, the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a full length gown of chantilly lace superbly combined over taffeta. A tracing of iridescent sequins and pearls sparkled along the Sabrina neckline of the fitted basque bodice, which also featured long sleeves. Magnificent fullness of the skirt was enhanced by continuous tiers of lace across the front that was bejeweled with sequins and pearls, and the lace back featured a flounce of lace around the edge of the chapel train. Her double waist veil of imported illusion floated from a medium crown one inch high pearl loops, that was topped by crystal beads over the top of the loops. She carried a white orchid on a Bible.

Miss Sharon Stock of Weeping Water was maid of honor. Miss Linda Norris of Omaha and Mrs. Roger Urwin of Valley also were the bride's attendants. Attendants wore street length dresses of pink cotton with square necklines and lace accented the sleeves and skirts. They had matching crowns with short veils. They carried colonial nosegays of pink and white carnations.

Best man was Herman Funke of Louisville and ushers were Jerry Partridge of Louisville and Don Joern of Springfield.

Jeannie Johnson of Louisville, niece of the bridegroom was

Mrs. Monson Writes From Fla.

Greetings come to The Journal as well as a subscription from Mrs. Irene B. Monson of Tallahassee, Fla.

Mrs. Monson relates she lived in Cass County as a child, went to school and married 50 years ago to Cornelius Bengen, Jr. of Mynard. They lived on a farm. He died in 1923.

In 1925 she married Mr. Monson and went to Florida. He drowned nine years ago.

She has many ties in Platts-mouth. Mrs. Martha Ruby of Mynard is a sister-in-law; Charles Land and John Beckman are her nephews.

She remembers many of her friends here, which prompted her to subscribe to The Journal.

Christ Lutheran Ladies Aid Meets

Christ Lutheran Ladies Aid Society held its July 26 meeting in the church parlors. Meeting was opened with prayer and was called to order by the president Mrs. Verner Freidrich; 21 members were present.

A dehumidifier has been purchased for the church parlors by the Aid and Sunday School.

The Father-Son banquet committee purchased some kitchen utensils, presented by Mrs. Hugo Meisinger.

A thank-you note was read from Mrs. John Albert Sr. and family.

The birthday song was sung for those having July birthdays.

Meeting was adjourned and closed with prayer by Dr. Lentz. Devotions, "Value of Solitude," were given by Mrs. Glen Kroeger.

A program followed which consisted of a piano solo by Ellen Engelkimer, guitar number by Wilbert Engelkimer and a piano solo by Joan Wehrbein.

Hostesses were Mrs. Franklin Wehrbein and Mrs. Roy Engelkimer.

August hostesses will be Mrs. Fred Wehrbein and Mrs. August Siemonlet.

VFW Plans Participation In Carnival

Plans for participation in the King Korn Carnival were on the agenda at the meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Tuesday night at the club rooms.

Harold Dukes, commander, presided at the business session.

The post and Auxiliary will sponsor a smorgasbord, an annual event, during the King Korn Carnival on G.I. nite. Further particulars to be announced later.

The group also voted to enter a float in the parade, and will select a candidate to sponsor for Carnival Kween.

Plans for redecorating the club rooms and also to improve the appearance of the building were approved. A committee on this project will complete the details. Work will begin immediately.

Cecil F. Feehan, department adjutant of Lincoln, will be a guest at the Lepert-Wolverer meeting Aug. 8. All members are urged to attend.

The District 6 meeting will be held at Crestview Lodge in Papillion Aug. 6. Several members of the post are district officers.

The membership drive will start Aug. 8 and all members are asked to assist in this drive.

The post approved the application of a member as a candidate for membership in the Coities.

Harold Dukes, and Jack Barnard, department community service chairman, who attended the Council of Administration meeting in Grand Island recently spoke briefly on highlights of the meeting.

The retiring of the flags concluded this meeting, and a social hour followed.

Orientation for Philippines Duty

LOUISVILLE (Special)—Miss Janet Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wright, left early Saturday morning by plane for University Park, Pa., where she will enter the Pennsylvania State College Monday for a seven weeks training course in the culture, economics, education, history and government of the Philippines.

Janet graduated from Nebraska Wesleyan University in Lincoln this summer and will be taking this training course as a member of the Peace Corp. If she is selected, after completing the course, Janet will serve as an assistant general science and language teacher in the Philippines.

Mrs. Gail E. Heffelfinger

Barkmeier-Heffelfinger Rites July 27 at Exeter

Miss Barbara Joan Barkmeier of Exeter and Mr. Gail E. Heffelfinger of Lincoln were united in marriage July 27 at St. Stephens Catholic Church in Exeter. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. H. H. Ingenhous officiated at the morning service in the presence of twenty guests, members of the immediate families.

The couple are teachers in the Platts-mouth High School. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis F. Barkmeier of Exeter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Heffelfinger of Lincoln.

Baskets of pink and white Gladiolus decorated the church for the wedding.

Mrs. Jerome Harre was organist and Miss Connie Vavra was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of re-embroidered Venice Lace and silk mist organza for her wedding. The fitted bodice with its scalloped portrait neckline was complimented by a bouffant skirt of silk organza. A wide belt and tailored bow of the silk organza accented the waistline. Her tiered veil of silk illusion was held by an organza bow. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink roses from which cascaded streamers of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Roger Johnson of Exeter was matron of honor. She was attired in a pink brocade frock with matching headband with halo veil. She carried a Colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

James Heffelfinger of Lincoln was best man, Robert E. Heffelfinger of Lincoln ushered.

A reception and buffet luncheon was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting were Mrs. Walter Barkmeier and Mrs. John Morgan, both of Exeter.

For her traveling costume, the bride chose a green and white, silk print sheath. The bridal couple is spending their honeymoon in Colorado.

After August 14 they will be at home at 819 1/2 First Avenue, Platts-mouth.

The bride attended the University of Nebraska, as did the bridegroom. She is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega Sorority and Phi Upsilon Omicron. Mr. Heffelfinger is a member of Phi Epsilon Kappa Fraternity.
