Fred Bourek, Mrs. Milton Scott, Mrs. George Smith, Mrs. Lloyd Fitch, Mrs. Wayne Lewis, Mrs. Vilas Spangler and, in front, Kay Casey, Mrs. V. N. Arn and Mrs. Johnson.

83 Is Nice Age for Golfing, Winnie Johnson Shows Here

Whether it's driving a golf ball 150 to 200 yards down the fairway or driving an automobile from California to Nebraska alone—have confidence, go ahead and do it!

That was the advice of Mrs. Winifred Johnson, San Diego, Calif., aunt of Francis M. Casey of Plattsmouth.

Mrs. Johnson, Winnie, has done both, this summer.

The unusual part of the performance is that Winnie is 83.

She played the Plattsmouth Country Club Course here with Casey last weekend, scored a neat 46 (women's par is 37) and gave some golfing advice to a willing group of women Monday at the Country Club.

Mrs. Johnson wasn't particularly proud of the 46 score, though it is as good as most of the best local women golfers (and some of the not-so-good men) post here. She said the trip from California was rather tiring, though she didn't show it.

Winnie says she plays golf every day at home. Her philosophy about golf is to stand right up to the ball without fear and give it a good whack.

Monday at an informal coffee for her by Mrs. Casey at the Country Club, she took time out to give a bit of golfing instruction to the ladies.

She also told about her start in golf at Fremont where she lived before moving to the West.

She started to learn the game and since there was no golf course there at the time she had to improvise. One of her improvisations was to hit small apples at a shed to learn the swing and follow-through.

Soon the building looked speckled like a print dress, she said, and her husband had to paint it over.

Mrs. Johnson has golfed some 50 years, once was Nebraska Women's Amateur champion.

Some of the ladies Monday seemed amazed at Winnie's ability to hit a golf ball, even more so at the fact she drove all the way from California alone.

This puzzled the lady. "You drive around town, don't you?" she asked. "Why not to or from California?"

Last weekend when Mrs. Johnson played golf here, she didn't play alone. How did Mr. Casey, her golfing partner, do? He did better his aunt's score. By how much? Ask the secretary of the Plattsmouth Country Club, Francis M. Casey.

WHACK IT!—The advice the lady gave was step right up to the ball and HIT IT! She gave a practical demonstration, the camera catching her club just at the height of the swing in a blur. The ball sailed down the fairway where it was supposed to go.
