

Oda Jayne Shoemaker Wed To William P. Goering

An evening wedding was held July 30 at the Bethel Church of Auburn, Nebraska uniting in marriage Miss Oda Jayne Shoemaker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shoemaker of Auburn, and William P. Goering son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Goering of Louisville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a white imported dotted swiss dress of street length. It was fashioned with a full skirt with sabrina neckline, edged in miniature daisies centered with rhinestones.

With it she wore a short jacket with bracelet length sleeves and peter pan collar. It was also trimmed with miniature daisies centered with rhinestones.

Her dress was fashioned and made by her mother. Her only jewelry was white button pearl earrings, a gift of the groom.

The bride carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations centered with three pink ones. It was encircled with white net and tied with a huge bow of white satin ribbon. Her lace and linen handkerchief was tied in the bow and was carried by her great-grandmother at her wedding 118 years ago.

Mrs. Jack Connors of Elmwood, aunt of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. Her dress was a baby blue jersey with net over velvet head band. She carried a pink colonial bouquet fashioned like the bride's.

Jack Connors of Elmwood, uncle of the bridegroom, was best man.

The men wore dark business suits with white carnation boutonnières. Cecil Gerdes Jr. of Plattsmouth and Edwin Stubendek of Unadilla were ushers.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Shoemaker chose black crepe with black and white accessories.

The mother of the bridegroom wore beige.

Both mothers wore pink and white carnation corsages.

Miss Elaine Rogge played a prelude of bridal music while the guests were being seated, also the traditional wedding march.

She also accompanied Karen Blount who sang.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church. The bride's table was covered with pink net over pink taffeta. It was centered with a three tiered bridal cake in pink and white topped by a miniature bride and groom which was baked by the bride's mother.

It was flanked by 2 pink tapers in bone glass holders. A bone glass vase with garden flowers completed the table.

Miss Elaine Rogge and Miss Karen Blount waited on the bride's table.

Miss Phyllis Groff, Mrs. James Furnace of Auburn and Miss Darlene Hilton of Sabetha, Kans., helped with the gifts.

Miss Ethel Zubler of Sabetha, Kans., had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Jean Gerdes of Plattsmouth, Mrs. Ernest Schoemaker of Omaha, Mrs. Charles Wagner of Falls City and Mrs. Richard Schoemaker of Des Moines, sisters and sister-in-law of the bride, served.

Mrs. Goering graduated with the class of 1960 from Auburn High School, has since been employed in Omaha, Plattsmouth and more recently in Elmwood.

Mr. Goering received his education in the Elmwood school. He served two years in the Army, 11 months of which were spent in Korea. Since his return he has been engaged in farming.

After a wedding trip to Colorado Mr. and Mrs. Goering are at home on a farm west of Elmwood.
