

Christian Fellowship

WEeping WATER (Special)—The general meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship was held on Thursday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Charles Freeman, vice president, opened the meeting with the thought: "Kind Hearts, Kind Deeds, Kind Thoughts." Roll call was answered by giving a Bible verse.

Mrs. Ralph Hyde presented the worship and the missionary lesson. Her topic was "The Greatest is Love."

The Junior Circle will meet in September with Mrs. William Klemme and the Senior Circle with Mrs. Mabel Breckenridge.

Mrs. John Rieck and Mrs. Leon Bond were hostesses for the meeting.

Mrs. Robert Bruce, Tom and Ann were guests for lunch.

Glenn Pedersen

Glenn Pedersen Assisted with 'Witness' Assembly

OMAHA — Glenn F. Pedersen Jr. of Plattsmouth assisted in preparations for the "United Worshipers District Assembly" of Jehovah's Witnesses at the Civic Auditorium in Omaha, Aug. 15-20.

Pedersen assisted in the sign painting department. "There sure are a lot of signs to paint for a convention of 10,000 delegates," he said. "Little signs, big signs, some in black and white, others in color, many used at the auditorium itself, others used to advertise the convention to the public."

The purpose of the gathering, according to Pedersen, was "to promote unity among worshipers of God at a time when materialism and godlessness are bringing chaos to the earth."

"Highlight of the convention," Pedersen said, "was the public address entitled 'When All Nations Unite Under God's Kingdom' by Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York.

Although graduating from Plattsmouth High School in 1960, Pedersen has been active as one of Jehovah's Witnesses for many years. He attended conventions of Jehovah's Witnesses and assisted in their operation in the past, including the one at Yankee Stadium, New York City, in 1958, which attracted over a quarter of a million delegates from all over the world.

Pedersen, along with another young minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, operates a printing company in Omaha, where they do job printing in addition to their ministerial work with the Plattsmouth Congregation.

Nehawka WSCS

NEHAWKA (Special) — The Nehawka WSCS met at the Methodist Church Aug. 16, Mrs. George Sheldon presiding.

Mrs. Ona Kunkel gave the devotions.

Mrs. Elmer Stoll gave the program, "The World Federation of Methodist Women." The main topic was the need of neighborhood love in an agitated world. The women of the Methodist Federation are meeting in Oslo, Norway.

The new yearbooks were passed out.

The reception for the minister and teachers will be held on Sept. 6.

Mrs. Visa Brown was a guest at the meeting.

Hostesses were Mrs. Emma Nutzman, Mrs. Frank Lemon and Mrs. Glen Rutledge.

Mr. Lee is a former pastor at Hebron.

Obituary

Cora Eddy Griffin

Cora Eddy, daughter of John and Alcy Eddy, was born Nov. 20, 1876, in Brown County, Indiana. While a small girl, she moved with her parents to Kansas for a year, then to Polk County, Missouri, where she grew to womanhood.

Dec. 22, 1892, she was married to Elijah M. Griffin of that community. They had six children. They first made their home on a farm near Aldridge, Mo. After a few years they moved into a nearby town, Fairplay.

In 1918, they moved to Nehawka, three years later coming to Plattsmouth.

Mr. Griffin died May 19, 1937. For only a few months, Mrs. Griffin kept her home and then moved in with her daughter and son-in-law, George Winscot. She visited often in the homes of her other children but always called this home.

She had been in poor health for several years but failed more noticeable the past year.

She entered a hospital in Omaha for a thorough physical checkup July 18. After 10 days she returned home where she was confined to her bed most of the time.

She died Aug. 17 at 84. Preceding her in death were her husband and a son who died in infancy.

Survivors are three sons, Horace of Union, and Alfred and Arley both of California; two daughters, Mrs. Jessie Moore of Miller, Mo., and Mrs. Francis Winscot of Plattsmouth; eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren; two brothers, C. C. Eddy of Ottumwa, Iowa, and John Eddy of Rising Star, Tex.; three sisters, Mrs. Will Slagle of Whittier, Calif., Mrs. Lester Griffin of Modesto, Calif., and Mrs. Harry Ives of Carthage, Mo.

On the first Christmas after their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin were baptized and united with the Christian Church. Coming to Plattsmouth, they transferred their membership to the local First Christian Church and were faithful members.

Funeral was Saturday at First Christian Church with the Rev. J. W. Taenzler officiating. Burial was in Shady Grove Cemetery, Fairplay, Mo.

Mrs. Dale Jackson, Mrs. Kenneth Wright, Phyllis Carey and Mary Taenzler sang at the services, accompanied by organist Betty Taenzler.
