

Scrimmage Set Here Tonight

The Plattsmouth High football squad is making final preparations for the season opener next Friday night, Sept. 15, when they clash with the Crete Cardinals on the local gridiron.

The Blue Devils are scheduled for a scrimmage under the lights tonight, and Coach Norris Hale reports that it will be the last thorough test before the initial fray.

With the completion of three weeks of strenuous activity, the PHS coaching staff plans to put the finishing touches on the Blue Devil multiple offense next week.

"We have had some minor injuries to key personnel and we would like to take a healthy squad into the Crete contest," commented Coach Hale.

However, three gridderes will definitely be out of action for the opener as Don Lebens, Roger Heedum, and Bob Whelan will watch from the sidelines. Lebens has a broken thumb and Heedum a broken foot but both should return to action soon. Whelan, a Junior suffered a broken leg in scrimmage and will be lost for the season.

The Blue and White squad has grown to 55 members. Recent additions to the squad are Junior Ron Adkins and Walter Yemney; sophomores Dennis Adams, Terry Wiles, Marvin Thoms, and Ron Richards; and freshmen Don Markham, Joe Shown, Orval Alber, and Gary Christensen.

Deibert McDaniel, 185-pound junior tackle, was dropped from the squad.

Both Adams and Adkins are expected to hold down starting assignments as defensive halfbacks and show promise as offensive ends. Alber is probably the outstanding freshman prospect on the squad and is a 165 pound halfback.

Currently running on the first unit are Dan Schultz and Larry Cadwell at ends; Roger Beverage and Al Konfrst at tackles; Charles Keppard and Jack Fairfield at guards; Dick Johnson at center; and Dave Nettelmann, Jack Scott, Marvin Lancaster, and Bill Nettelmann in the backfield.

Scott has returned to action after a short illness and should play an important role in the Blue Devil offense. Senior veteran Fred Groce has been seeing double duty at left end and fullback.

The PHS coaching staff indicated that if Groce didn't draw the starting left end post it would be Schultz, Adkins or Adams.

The staff had special praise for the running of Groce and Lancaster in the ball carrying department and the passing of Dave Nettelmann indicates that the Blue Devils may have a potent aerial attack.

Line Coach Cecil McKnight singled out the play of senior tackle Konfrst and guards Keppard and Fairfield.

Most Nebraska high school teams will open the season this Friday night and the local coaches plan to scout the Crete-Beatrice contest.

Coach Bob Humphrey's reserve team will travel to Louisville Monday night for their first contest. Game time is 7 p.m.
