

Norma Kay Ross Weds John Stanley at Nehawka Church

NEHAWKA (Special)—Norma Kay Ross and John Stanley were married Sept. 2 at the Methodist Church in Nehawka at two o'clock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stanley, all of Nehawka.

Rev. Hackley officiated at the wedding service which 80 attended.

Baskets of garden flowers decorated the church.

Mrs. Elmer Ross played the organ, and also accompanied Mrs. Jerry Harshman who sang.

The bride's father gave her hand in marriage. She was gowned in a floor length dress of white lace over taffeta.

The scalloped neckline enhanced the bodice which had long sleeves pointed at the wrist. She carried a crescent bouquet of white gladiolus.

Shirley Ross, sister of the bride, of Nehawka, was maid of honor and was gowned in an old rose taffeta frock, fashioned similar to the bride's gown.

Connie Deitl and Rose Marie Stoll of Nehawka were bridesmaids. They wore alike frocks of pink taffeta and matching hats.

The bride's attendants carried bouquets of white gladiolus. Melissa Ross, sister of the bride, lighted the candles at the altar.

Marcia Ross, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Carl Bates of Neligh was best man.

Groomsmen were Jerry Harshman of Omaha and Terry Briley of Lincoln.

Richard and Allen Worthan ushered.

The bride's mother wore a blue sheath dress with black accessories and a white corsage.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in a toast colored wool dress with brown accessories and wore a yellow corsage.

A reception was held in the church parlors. Garden flowers and the bride's cake appointed the serving table.

Mrs. Ivan Hansen and Mrs. Bert Worthan cut the wedding cake; Sandra Waller poured punch.

Judy Atterberry of Omaha and Linda Rose of Murdock helped with the gifts.

The bride is a graduate of the Nehawka Schools, class of 1960; attended business school in Omaha and is employed in Lincoln.

The bridegroom is a 1959 graduate of the Nehawka Schools; attended the University of Nebraska, majoring in law.

They will live in Lincoln.

Plans for marching in the parade and a Halloween party marked the meeting Tuesday night of the Auxiliary to the Military Order of the Cootie.

Sophia Wolever, president, presided at the business session. Roll call was answered with all present but Phyllis Barnard, secretary, who was ill.

June Conrad served as secretary pro tem.

Ballooning was conducted with five members elected to the Auxiliary. To be eligible for membership, candidate must be in good standing in the Auxiliary.

Report was given by the initiating team comprised of Veltha Poggemeyer, Gladys Kemp, Rowena Kemp and Phyllis Barnard, that initiating ceremonies would be pending until by-laws from National are received.

The local group will participate in the King Korn Carnival parade on G.I. night with Auxiliary from Omaha taking part in this event.

Plans for a hospital program to be presented at the Veterans Hospital are being completed, was reported by Norma Wilson hospital chairman.

Anna Mae Santano, hospital chairman of Council Bluffs, Iowa, and June Conrad president of the Military Order of the Cootie of Omaha, were guests at the local meeting.

Mrs. Santano who attended the National meeting at Miami, Fla., gave an interesting report of the highlights of the convention and announced that as of August, there are 3,200 members in this newly organized Auxiliary. Nebraska has two Auxiliaries. One in Plattsmouth and the other in Omaha.

By laws and regulations are now on the agenda, to be presented to the members. Uniforms are to be adopted, and released in the fall as the official attire for the ladies groups.

A Halloween party is to mark the October meeting of this group, with a chicken dinner to be served by the hostesses Veltha Poggemeyer and Gladys Kemp.

Meeting adjourned with the retiring of the colors by the conductress Gladys Kemp. A social hour was held with a spaghetti dinner served by Rowena Kemp and Pearl Myers.

Mrs. Edward Ulrich

Jacobs-Ulrich Wedding Sept. 2 At St. John's Church Here

Miss Darlene Jacobs and Mr. Edward Ulrich were married Sept. 2 at St. John the Baptist Church here in a ten a.m. wedding service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Jacobs. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ulrich.

Monsignor Pruzdik officiated at the service.

Mrs. George Jacobs was organist and John Jacobs of Omaha was soloist.

White gladioli decorated the altar of the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a superbly shaped gown of luminous flower scattered silk brocade. The sculptured bodice enhanced with tiny seed pearls was fashioned with a bateau neckline. The long sleeves tapered to the traditional bridal point over the wrists.

The voluminous princess line skirt worn over starched petticoats cascaded into an aisle wide train. Her double veil of English illusion fell in a circular sweep from a capulet of forget-me-nots and roses. She was carrying a cascade bouquet of gamillias.

Carol Jacobs, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Dean Biles, both of Plattsmouth and Judy Saddle of Paxton, were the bridesmaids. Janet Jacobs, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The attendants wore identical gowns of violet Peau Satin. The intricately draped bodices were trimmed in a bow over one hipline, and featured scoop necklines and cap sleeves. The short skirts were designed in an unpressed pleated effect.

Carl Ulrich, Jr., brother of the bride, was best man. Groomsmen were Larry Hermann and John Horn of Lincoln and Vern Aylor of Plattsmouth. Tom Zastera and Dennis Ptak ushered.

A reception at the St. John's School Auditorium immediately followed the wedding ceremony.

Mrs. Walter Weaver poured coffee; Mrs. John Jacobs served the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Lyle Schafer.

The bridal couple left immediately following the reception for a wedding trip to Canada. When they return they will live at 1018 Avenue H, Plattsmouth.

Both are graduates of the Plattsmouth Schools. Mr. Ulrich attended the Omaha University and is employed at Allied Chemical, La Platte.

L. E. Lancaster Visits Former Home

L. E. Lancaster has returned home after a two-week vacation spent in his native state of Ohio.

Most of the visit was in his old home town of Nelsonville. He was there during their Annual Celebration "The Parade of the Hills" and was able to meet many of his boyhood friends.

In Delaware, Ohio he visited a nephew, Dr. Herald Lancaster who is Librarian at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Smith of Plattsmouth are parents of a son born Tuesday morning at St. Mary's Hospital, Nebraska City. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lora Smith of Omaha and Mr. and Mrs. George Mumm of Plattsmouth. Great-grandfather is Peter Mumm of Plattsmouth.
