ANNA McFALL

Margaret Ann McFall, 95 — known as Anna McFall to her friends — was born Nov. 25, 1866, in the Province of Ontario, Canada, in the County of Perth.

She was born in the log cabin built by her father, Archibald McFall, on the farm he himself had cleared of virgin timber with a hand-axe. Anna was the second oldest child in a family of seven children.

At the age of 14 she came with the family to Cass County, where her father had just purchased a farm near Elmwood.

Shortly after this, Anna joined the newly-established Christian Church as one of the charter members. She was the last surviving charter member by many years. She was baptized by "Grandpa Cyrus Aiton," the church minister at that time. Since there were no heated church baptistries in that day, and it was cold weather, a hole was broken through the ice in the creek just east of Elmwood and here Anna was baptized.

Her father joined the Christian Church on the same day.

In 1898, her father retired from farming and the family moved into Elmwood to the new home they had just built at the north end of town.

For many years the local school teachers boarded and roomed at the McFall home, Anna doing all the cooking for them.

Sometime shortly after the Elmwood Rebekah Lodge got its charter in 1903, Anna became a member, and remained a loyal member until her death. In the fall of 1906, Anna and her sister Ida started a millinery store in Elmwood.

They remained as proprietors of the McFall Millinery Shop for 20 years until 1926.

She was preceded in death by two sisters, Mrs. Elmer Boyles, and Ida McFall, and by a brother, John McFall.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. George Hall and Mrs. Fourth Fitch, and a brother George McFall.

Funeral services were at Elmwood Christian Church Sept. 7th, conducted by Pastor William Bavis. Burial was in Elmwood Cemetery.
