

ALBERT WETENKAMP and JIM HURST, freshmen at Peru State Teachers College, provided Plattsouth's contribution to the annual Variety Show last week. Sponsored by J. D. Levitt, associate professor of English and speech, the show included musical, dance and comedy numbers. The Variety Show climaxed the first full week of classes for the 94th academic year at Peru State.

Round-up and Horse Show Here Well Attended

The Cass County Horse Show Association held its Husker Hawkeye Round Up Day and Horse Show Sunday at its arena south of Plattsouth.

There were 123 head of horses participating.

Nine clubs attending were Omaha Saddle Club, Stockyards Saddle Club and Diamond C, all from Omaha; Rough Riders and Pathfinders, Fremont; Rebel Riders, Waterloo; Nebraska City Saddle Club; Papillion Saddle Club; Buffalo Busters, Springfield and the Cass County Saddle Club.

Out-of-town riders for the horse show also came from Glenwood, Shenandoah and Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The all-around trophy went to the Stockyard Saddle Club for most points. The trophy was sponsored by the Consumer Public Power of Plattsouth.

Attendance was good.

Janio Quadros, President of Brazil:

"I was not born President of the Republic but I was surely born with my conscience. It is this I must respect. It tells me that the best way that I have now to serve the people and the country is to resign."
