

Eagles Auxiliary Has Meeting

Membership was a current event at the meeting Thursday night of the Eagles Auxiliary meeting at the Eagles hall.

Mrs. Hazel Lahoda, madam president, conducted the session. Mary Barnard was appointed inside guard pro-tem.

One application was received for membership. The investigating committee will report and balloting will be conducted at the next meeting.

A thank you from Mrs. Iva Hoffman was received, for courtesies received while visiting the Eagles Auxiliary, with her husband Paul Hoffman, Grand president of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles. Also, thank you notes from Mary Kay Smith and Vlasta Land for gifts received during their illness.

Invitation was received from the South Omaha Auxiliary to attend an entertainment Oct. 22 in observance of Gertrude Schutzy. She is madam state president. Members planning to attend are to contact Irene Smith, secretary, for reservations.

In the reports of activities, Dorothy Hobbs, visiting committee chairman, gave a report on sending gifts to ill members.

Dorothy Janacek on delinquency, announced that several letters had been written to members who are delinquent in their dues. Tillie Strange, on Ways and Means, reported the cake walk recently netted the Auxiliary $35.30. Mrs. Strange also has announced that Mabel Menges and Alice Stander would serve on the lunch committee at the dance Saturday, Oct. 14.

No entry was submitted at the King Korn Carnival parade due to the rain, Irene Smith announced.

Honey Lou Cole, on entertainment, reported that plans were forming for activities to be held during the fall and winter months.

Discussion was held on rummage sale with Dorothy Janacek reporting that St. John's hall was obtained for Nov. 10 and 11.

Irene Smith, on membership, announced that more members were needed to fill quotas. Madam Conductor, Sophia Wolover, was appointed to assist in the new-member program for October.

A family supper will be held Oct. 21.

A Halloween party is planned for Oct. 23.

Trustees report was given by Dorothy Janacek, and the secretary's report by Irene Smith.

The Auxiliary voted to purchase a trophy case, recommended by the committee.

The container in the Eagles hall for coffee strips has ample space, and members are urged to bring them, in order that premiums designated for this project may be applied for.

Donna Kern was awarded the prize allotted for members in good standing who are in attendance at meetings.

Meeting adjourned according to ritual to reopen Oct. 19 with officers meeting preceding the regular business session.

Lunch was served during the social hour held for the Fraternal Order of the Eagles and Auxiliary.

18 CHILDREN AT WEDDING

Carmel, Ca. — Eighteen children watched the wedding of 43-year-old Navy warrant officer, Francis Louis Beardsley and 31-year-old Mrs. Helen North, widow of a Navy flier, in the historic Carmel Mission.

Relatives will keep the children while Beardsley, father of ten, and the bride, mother of eight, go on a honeymoon.

They will all occupy the $22,000 home where carpenters are adding three bedrooms to the present five and increasing the bathrooms, from three to five.

HANDY WEAPON

Los Angeles — Three men walked up to Richard Partridge, a service station attendant and announced that "this is a hold-up." Their hands were in their shirts indicating all three had guns.

Taken by surprise, but using the handiest weapon available, Partridge slapped them in the face with a mop, soaked in cleaning fluid he had been using to clean a grease spot. The would-be robbers fled empty-handed.

CYO Elects Officers

Regina Nelson, Spiritual Chairman; Jim Bierl, Cultural Chairman; Carolyn Witte, Social Chairman; and Don Lebens, Physical Chairman.

The agenda for the coming year calls for two spiritual, cultural, social and physical activities during the next eight months. A tentative schedule for the first four months has been set up. The first activity, physical in nature, will take place this Sunday, Oct. 15, at 3 p.m. when St. John's CYO basketball and volleyball teams will tangle with St. Mary's CYO of Nebraska City in St. John's Auditorium. A dance has been scheduled for late November. A cultural event will highlight the month of December; and an afternoon of recollection is planned for January.

The CYO meetings will continue to be held on the first and third Wednesdays of the month at 7 p.m. in St. John School. The first part of the meeting consists in a course in apologetics, or advanced instructions in the Catholic Religion, given by Monsignor Joseph Pruzdzik, pastor of St. John's.

This is followed immediately by a social meeting during which plans for future activities are made and ideas for new activities are welcomed. The evening is concluded with a game of basketball or volleyball.

UNKNOWN PHONE NUMBER

Clearwater, Fla. — Dr. Bradley Waldron, a representative for a construction company, isn't bothered with his telephone ringing.

It seems that the telephone company converted its dial system recently and changed Waldron's unlisted number.

Dr. Waldron called information to get his number — they wouldn't tell him. The supervisor refused to give him his number. At last reports he still didn't know his number.
