Academy-Church Homecoming Held at Weeping Water

WEEPING WATER (Special)—Recently the First Congregational Church in Weeping Water decided on an annual Homecoming for those who attended the old Weeping Water Academy (1885-1915) which the church had founded and supported for so many years.
 It was also decided to include past members of the church and the first Homecoming was held Oct. 8.

It began with a worship service at 10:30 a.m. at which the pastor took as his text, "Go home to your own folks and tell them what the Lord in his mercy has done for you." Mark 5:19.
 Two anthems were sung by the choir and the anniversary hymn used for the Centennial, by Carl Bast, was also used again.
 Following the service, a covered dish dinner was held in the church parlors for guests and members.

Mrs. Ray Norris served as emcee and called on some of those present to speak. These included Mr. K. C. Dodderidge, Wilbur Countryman, Walter Pierce, Mrs. L. P. Wolcott.
 Letters were read by Mrs. B. Olive, Miss G. Hanford and Pastor Campbell and notation made of other letters from graduates who had been unable to come.
 It had been hoped to honor George Reed, the oldest living past member (he was Sunday School superintendent in 1888) but he was unable to come.

Color slides of the centennial and the building of the new parsonage were shown and the library was opened by Mrs. E. Ludwick for those who might wish to visit their old "class rooms".
 Out-of-town visitors included Walter Pierce, Harrisville, Mo.; Wilbur Countryman, North Platte, Blanche Barden Colbert, Lincoln; Evelyn Wolph, Nehawka; Mrs. Vera Baldwin Dowler, Omaha; Mrs. Ruth Hitchman Petersen, San Jose, Calif.

Elmwood Churches

ELMWOOD (Special)—Elmwood church notes:
Evangelical United Brethren—12 of the Youth Fellowship and 3 adults went to Omaha Sunday to a meeting. The anthem at morning services was "In Heaven Above". The evening circle will meet this week at the Vernon Bornemier home on Wednesday. Rev. and Mrs. Ebinger are visiting their 3 children at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
Methodist—It being "Laymen's Sunday," 3 of the men had charge of the service. Howard Pool gave the sermon. Joy Miller read the scripture. Dwight Clements presided. A lovely potted plant was enjoyed by all. The LeRoy Cook's gave it in memory of her father, Howard Capwell.
Catholic—Mass will be held this Thursday evening. Those who visited the "Madonna Open House" in Lincoln Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Selker, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Selker and Anna Selker. A dinner was served on the lawn. A church board meeting was held Wednesday Oct. 18th at the Albert Selkers'.
Christian—Special in music was a duet by Rev. Bavis and Mrs. Amy Irons for Sunday morning. It was "In the Garden". Several members attended the installation of the State Secretary of Nebr. Mr. Stacy. Sunday evening.
