

Marlene JoAnn Wilken Weds Dale E. Stutheit

Marlene JoAnn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Wilken, Murdock, and Dale Edwin Stutheit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Stutheit, of Burr, were married Oct. 21 at Ebenezer Evangelical United Brethren Church, Murdock, with the Rev. H. R. Knosp, Elmwood, grandfather of the bride, performing the double-ring ceremony before 150 relatives and friends.

Mrs. Warren Rikil and Mrs. Eldon Paske played the wedding music. Dr. Alton A. Knosp, Paton, Iowa, uncle of the bride, sang.

Miss Cynthia Knosp of Elmwood, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl and Stanley Stutheit of Syracuse, nephew of the groom, was ringbearer.

Meredith Ann Wilken, cousin of the bride, and Connie Stutheit, niece of the groom, were candle-lighters.

The bride, given by her father, chose a gown of imported lace and tulle in traditional white. Natural scallops of lace, traced with pearls and iridescents, framed the sabrina neckline of the lace basque which was designed with long sleeves tapered to bridal points.

A colonial style overskirt of lace was lifted at intervals by self roses revealing a billowing skirt of tulle. The illusioned waist length veil was held by a jewelled alena-con-lace crown. She carried a cascade of rust colored chrysanthemums with a center of yellow roses.

The maid of honor, Carolyn Wilken of Grant, sister-in-law of the bride, was clad in a gold taffeta with a hat of gold veivet and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Evon DuBois, Grant, attired in a rust taffeta with hat to match and carried a combination of chrysanthemums and yellow roses, and Bonnie Hans, Malcolm, gowned in a green taffeta with hat to match and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums.

Ushers were Duane Wilken, Grant, brother of the bride, and Gilbert Weyers of Lincoln.

The bridegroom was attended by Wayne Stutheit, his brother, of Syracuse, as best man, Lloyd Armstrong, Lincoln, and Gary Neiman, Eagle. All wore white jackets and dark trousers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. The bride is a 1957 graduate of the Murdock High School and is employed by Robert's Dairy in Lincoln. The bridegroom is a truck driver for Robert's.

Following a wedding trip, the couple is at home in Lincoln.

American Legion Auxiliary

The Oct. 26 meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was called to order in the 40 and 8 Clubrooms by President Vera Waga.

The colors were advanced and a prayer was given by Chaplain, Mary Pittman.

The minutes of the Sept. 28 meeting were read and approved. The treasurer's report was also given and approved.

Members turned in their Butternut Key strips for collection by Child Welfare Chairman, Virginia Schalk.

Courtesy Chairman, Mary Pittman reported cards and handkerchiefs sent to Verna Perry Mrs. Glaze and Helen Kalasek. Chairman of the Juniors, LaVetta Moritz, reported on their latest activity, which was a wiener roast and scavenger hunt.

An apron was turned in toward the Christmas gift assignment of the Rehabilitation committee. The apron was made by Ethel Zastera.

The motion was made and carried to place an advertisement in the paper announcing that the Legion Auxiliary will be taking orders for the fruit cakes made by Butterfield farms this year especially for the Auxiliary. Orders can be placed with Virginia Schalk at 5250.

The grave markers were reported received.

The Commander of the post, Melvin Moritz, then spoke to the meeting, requesting a committee be appointed to work with the legion committee for the Veteran's Day covered dish dinner, party, and dance. The committee appointed are Helen Vroman, LaVetta Moritz, Virginia Schalk and Vera Waga.

A motion was made and carried to change next month's meeting date from the fourth Thursday to the fifth Thursday, Nov. 30th, as the fourth Thursday falls on Thanksgiving.

The president gave a report on

Berglund-Condon Rites Oct. 21

Mrs. John Condon

Nancy Jane Berglund, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl W. Berglund, Creighton, was an Oct. 21 bride of John Condon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Condon, also of Creighton.

Pastor George Obermeyer officiated at the 7:30 wedding service at the Zion Lutheran Church at Creighton. More than 200 guests attended the wedding.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Speck of Plattsmouth.

The bridal gown was fashioned of parchment taffeta and hand clipped rosepoint lace. The bodice was designed with a square portrait neckline framed in lace scallops and encrusted with seed pearls and iridescents. The sleeves were long and tapered. The beiled skirt of taffeta was floor length and flowed to the back to form a chapel train. The bustle length veil of silk English illusion fell from a pill box of matching taffeta with back bow and streamers. She carried a white orchid on a white Bible.

Mrs. Neil Stingley was her sister's matron of honor. The Misses Alice Jundt and Betty Condon were bridesmaids. The attendants were gowned in antique gold peau de soie.

Kay Jundt was flower girl and ringbearer was Kim Hackett.

Ron Sabadka was best man; groomsmen were Tom Largen and Neil Stingley. Seating the guests were W. R. Hengstler and Melvin Berglund.

Sheri Lee Sebade and Vicki Ann Sebade lighted the tapers before an altar flanked with chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Donald R. Beins, aunt of the bride, Plattsmouth, was soloist. Organist was Mrs. Max Tyler.

A reception in the church parlors immediately followed the wedding ceremony.

The bride is a nurses aide at Lundberg Memorial Hospital; the bridegroom attended the University of Nebraska and is farming south of Creighton, where the couple will live.

Attending the wedding from Plattsmouth and Omaha were Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Speck, Hilgard Speck, Bonnie Speck, Mr. and Mrs. John Speck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kostka and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Aschenbrenner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Don Beins and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Speck.
