

Mrs. Earl J. Tiedeman

Baier-Tiedeman Wedding At Weeping Water Church

Decorated in yellow and white roses and lighted candles, the Methodist Church of Weeping Water was the setting for the marriage of Miss Doris Rosanna Baier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O. Baier of Murdock to Earl J. Tiedeman son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tiedeman of Hickman.

Rev. C. F. Weidman of Oakland officiated at a 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony Oct. 22. Mrs. Richard Lauritzen was soloist. Mrs. John Groesser was organist.

The bride chose a gown of traditional white of silk Bombazine and hand clipped chantilly lace. Natural scallops of the lace, enhanced with pearls and iridescent, framed the sabrina neckline of the lace basque which was designed with long sleeves tapered to bridal points. The applique sprinkled skirt of Bombazine with lace edging was lifted at the front revealing a petticoat of scalloped lace. A cascade of lace edged Bombazine tiers swept to a chapel train.

A scalloped Queen's crown of jeweled lace and pleated tulle caught her fingertip veil of French Bridal illusion.

Her only jewelry was a diamond over cultured pearl on a silver chain, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried white roses centered with a white orchid on a lace and tulle covered Bible edged with pearls.

Mrs. Terry J. Jones, Lincoln was matron of honor, sister of the bride. She wore a street length sheath of yellow silk organza over taffeta with a matching lace overskirt; matching headpiece, shoes and a pearl necklace, gift of the bride. Her bouquet was of white roses with yellow ribbon.

Martha Rose Edgmon, Harrison, Ark., cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid.

Bridesmaids were Meses. Harry Ziegenbein of Grand Island and Steven Vickich of Lincoln. They wore alike street length sheaths of lilac silk organza over taffeta with matching lace overskirts, and matching headpieces and shoes and pearl necklaces, a gift of the bride. They carried bouquets of yellow roses with lilac ribbons.

Flower girl was Shirley Oosting of Lincoln, niece of the bridegroom.

Serving as best man was Mr. Terry J. Jones, Lincoln, brother-in-law of the bride. Groomsman were Donald Tiedeman of Firth; Lloyd Tiedeman of Hickman, brothers of bridegroom and James Baier of Ft. Smith, Ark., uncle of the bride.

Ringbearer was Gregg Behrends, nephew of the bridegroom.
