

LOUISVILLE NEWS

Mrs. Ralph Wildrick — Phone 2511

Donna and Gary Stander of Greenwood spent several days last week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stander near Murdock while their mother, Mrs. Clifford Stander under went surgery at the St. Joseph hospital in Omaha. Mrs. Clifford Stander has returned home and is feeling better.

Mary and Nancy Welte visited from Thursday evening through Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Kathryn Welte in Lincoln.

Ralph Puls of Manley won three county medals last Thursday evening at the Cass County Achievement program held in Weeping Water. He received a medal for Beautification, one for Beef and one for Electrification.

Mrs. Richard Streeter and children were Thursday guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Brockley and sons in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyel Leroy have moved from Lincoln to Elmwood and were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Leroy.

Tuesday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wildrick were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wildrick, Mrs. John Grothouse and children and Mrs. Russell Counts and Donna of Springfield.

Sunday guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Arends and family was her mother, Mrs. Emma Tegtmeyer of Nebraska City.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Schliefer and Mrs. Floyd Renner all of Louisville and Mrs. Blitt Zastera of Syracuse attended the American Legion and Auxiliary convention at Nebraska City.

Mrs. Robert Frederickson and Susan and her mother, Mrs. John Gruber, Sr., of Manley were among those attending the Mother-daughter banquet at Louisville Monday evening.

Mrs. Earl Puls attended the bridal shower at the Christ Lutheran church Sunday honor-

Dedication at Weeping Water, Nehawka Churches

NEHAWKA (Special) — Oct. 29, the Dr. Everett E. Jackman, superintendent of the Omaha District of the Methodist Church preached the sermon and officiated in the Dedication and Consecration Service, at Nehawka and Weeping Water, where the new parsonage and altar memorial gifts were dedicated; and at Nehawka the following memorial gifts were dedicated.

The New Dossal Curtain, The Sudbury Brass Altar Set and Missal Stand in Classic Square-Base Design, The Candlestick Lighter—from the Memorial Fund.

Table and chairs for the Primary Sunday School Department—from the Memorial Fund.

The North Room—The major portion of the cost was met by a Bequest from Miss Isadore Hall, an early resident of Nehawka before moving to the State of Washington in 1908 where she lived until her death Sept. 8. Miss Hall is a sister of Mrs. R. B. Stone and Chas. Hall of Nehawka. The remainder of the cost was met by 103 contributions from people in the Methodist Church and Community at large whose gifts also paid for the repairs to the basement of the church.

Accordian Doors—from Mr. and Mrs. John H. Steefens in memory of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Magney.

Leather Pulpit Chairs—One of these chairs was given by the family of Mrs. Anna Norris, of Avoca, and the other by the family of Mrs. Ruth Pollard.

Other gifts to the church, not listed above, have previously been dedicated.

Dr. Jackman held special meetings, in the Nehawka Church, on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday evenings.

classmates of the First Grade. At the close of the party, a beautiful birthday cake depicting a barnyard scene with all kinds of plastic farm animals in a corral and a small lake in one corner with a swan on it, was served along with ice cream and chocolate milk. Mitchell received many nice gifts.

Mrs. Glen Harbison of Louisville was transferred Monday by plane from the Spears Hospital in Denver, Colorado, where she has been for eight weeks, to the Clarkson Hospital in Omaha. She is still about the same.

Irvin Franke, president, and Ed McCrory of Murdock, Gerald Switzer of Manley and Max Amelang of Louisville, delegates of the United Cement Union attended the 17th convention of the United Cement Lime and Gypsum workers International Union, of district council No. 7 in Omaha Friday and Saturday.

Charles Pearson of Geneva was a guest Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Leroy were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Counts and children near Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Linus Massoth and Theresa of Elkhorn were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linus Massoth in Manley.

Mrs. Olive Woolhiser of Louisville and Mrs. Jack Bloodgood and Paula of Oakdale, California returned home Wednesday after spending ten days visiting at the Gene Suss home and Pete Fidler home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson home in Norwood, Mo., and other relatives in Independence, Mo.

The Junior Choir of the Methodist church, encompassing Grades 4 through 8, has again resumed choir practice every Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 p.m. Mrs. Orville Willis is the director and Mrs. Wayne Gess is the organist. The Junior choir sing in the early morning service every Sunday at the Methodist church.

Sunday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tlustos were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tlustos and Elaine of Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuhn were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kuhn and Linda in South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wildrick were Saturday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daharsh near Hickman.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Georgie Gess were Mrs. Gladys Cook and Mrs. Elizabeth Christenson of Grand Island. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Gess are sisters. Mrs. Harma Twiss was a Sunday afternoon caller.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kraft were Monday visitors of Mrs. Mary Lau and Miss Ella Lau in Murdock.

Robert M. White, Major, speaking of X-15 tests: "I was essentially outside the atmosphere. I could definitely feel the increasing pull of gravity as I pulled back."

A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 50 cents.

Judy Fitzgibbon

Judy Fitzgibbon Elmwood Queen

Elmwood High School had their Homecoming Oct. 25 in the new auditorium following the football game with Eagle-Alvo.

The theme was carried out as Harvest Moon. A backdrop of a harvest scene was on the stage making the background for the King and Queen's throne.

The Candidates for Queen were: Judy Fitzgibbon, Sherry Stolz, and Charmaine Parriott. The candidates for King were: Chuck Green, Wayne Stubben-deck, and Dick Vogt.

After the candidates were announced, Cheryl Bornemeier crowned Judy Fitzgibbon, Queen, and Chuck Green, King.

Crownbearers were Douglas Lannin and Mary Engles. Carol Kastens presented the flowers to the Queen and Eugenia Bornemeier gave each one a gift.

The King and Queen and their attendants started the evening by dancing the first dance to the music by the Ray Rosenow Orchestra.

Mother-Daughter Event at Louisville

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The Mother-Daughter banquet, sponsored by the Wesleyan Service Guild, was held at the Methodist church in Louisville. There were over 100 in attendance. The serving was done by the Methodist Men's Group.

The tables were decorated with "Horns of Plenty" and a bouquet of autumn flowers. Nut cups were made of milk weed pods set on a leaf.

After the banquet the following program was presented. Mrs. Sue Pankonin was toastmistress. Mrs. Jayne McShane gave elang of Louisville, delegates of the United Cement Union attended the 17th convention of the United Cement Lime and Gypsum workers International Union, of district council No. 7 in Omaha Friday and Saturday.

Charles Pearson of Geneva was a guest Sunday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Pearson.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Leroy were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Counts and children near Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Linus Massoth and Theresa of Elkhorn were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Linus Massoth in Manley.

Mrs. Olive Woolhiser of Louisville and Mrs. Jack Bloodgood and Paula of Oakdale, California returned home Wednesday after spending ten days visiting at the Gene Suss home and Pete Fidler home in Kansas City, Missouri.

Mrs. Mary Ferguson home in Norwood, Mo., and other relatives in Independence, Mo.

The Junior Choir of the Methodist church, encompassing Grades 4 through 8, has again resumed choir practice every Wednesday evening from 7 to 8 p.m. Mrs. Orville Willis is the director and Mrs. Wayne Gess is the organist. The Junior choir sing in the early morning service every Sunday at the Methodist church.

Sunday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tlustos were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tlustos and Elaine of Plattsmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kuhn were Sunday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kuhn and Linda in South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wildrick were Saturday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Daharsh near Hickman.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Georgie Gess were Mrs. Gladys Cook and Mrs. Elizabeth Christenson of Grand Island. Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Gess are sisters. Mrs. Harma Twiss was a Sunday afternoon caller.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kraft were Monday visitors of Mrs. Mary Lau and Miss Ella Lau in Murdock.

Robert M. White, Major, speaking of X-15 tests: "I was essentially outside the atmosphere. I could definitely feel the increasing pull of gravity as I pulled back."

A Classified Ad in The Journal cost as little as 50 cents.

Scouts Work at Camp Crabill

At Scout Camp Crabill, Plattsmouth, Oct. 27-28, Scout Troops 94 of South Omaha and Troops 368 and 369 of Plattsmouth, had a two-day work project.

The Scouts completed an outdoor obstacle course, an amphitheater and cleaned the camp. Besides making the camp look more like a camp, all the hard work the boys did earned them their two-day and night camp-out credits.

Sunday morning, church services were held. The Rev. Msgr. Joseph Pruzdzik of St. John's Church, Plattsmouth, officiated at Mass.

The Rev. Harold Onwiler, EUB Church, Mynard, officiated at Protestant services. Rev. Onwiler also happens to be an Eagle Scout and is a member of the Order of the Arrow.

Adult leaders were: Troop 94—Frank Kuderer, S.M.; Sam Jensen, A.S.M.; "Granda" Kucerik, A.S.M.; and Ed Kucerik, neighborhood committee man.

Troop 368—Floyd Colbert, A.S.M.

Troop 369—Bill Spradlin, S.M.; John Rishel, A.S.M.; Lloyd Fitch, A.S.M.; Harvey Ritter, A.S.M.

The troops broke camp about 10:30 Sunday morning.

On behalf of the Scouting Committee, we would like to thank all the Scouts and Scouters and friends of Scouting for their participation in making Camp Crabill possible, the local committee said.

LOUISVILLE WSCS

LOUISVILLE (Special) — The WSCS and Wesleyan Guild held a joint meeting Thursday, Oct. 26 at the Methodist church. This was a "Quiet Day" Service for the "Week of Prayer and Self-Denial."

The meeting was held in the sanctuary and the program presented was "Christian Security." Mrs. George Dolan was organist and Mrs. Earl Hrabik was soloist. Mmes. David Webb, C. B. Hirsch and Willard McShane were on the Spiritual Life Committee. Mrs. Arvin Meyer and Mrs. Joe Hon also took part in the program. Mrs. Hon conducted the business meeting at the end of the program.

Refreshments were served in the dining room with Mmes. Elwood Pankonin, C. S. Hirsch and Ernest Hennings as hostesses; Mrs. M. E. Lewis of Topeka, Kansas was a guest.

Countyans To Attend Governor's Conference

Four Cass County teenagers will attend the Governor's Youth Safety Conference in Lincoln Nov. 11, at the Nebraska Center for Continuing Education.

Lee Dumke and Bonnie Johnson have been named delegates representing the Alvo-Eagle High School at Eagle will be John Moss and Jacqueline Kowatsky.

Purpose of the meeting is to establish a Nebraska Student Traffic Safety Program in the high schools of the state.

Governor Frank Morrison will deliver the keynote address. Other speakers will include Dr. A. L. Chapman, Assistant Surgeon General and Chief of the Division of Accident Prevention for the U. S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare, and Humorist Joe Adelman, a police lieutenant from Kansas City, Mo., who was a featured speaker at the recent National Safety Congress in Chicago.

The Nebraska Traffic Safety Foundation is sponsoring the conference.

Murray Youths Collect $62.07 for UNICEF

MURRAY (Special) — The pre-school through the eighth grade Murray youth went Trick or Treating for UNICEF Tuesday evening. They collected $62.07 from the Murray area.

After Trick or Treating the youth returned to the churches where they enjoyed several games and refreshments were served.

Several containers were placed in the Murray business places.

Mrs. Victor Schwartz and Mrs. Ruby Morris were chairmen of the drive.

CAMPFIRE SLUMBER PARTY

The O-K-HI Campfire girls were entertained at a Halloween Slumber Party at the home of our leader, Mrs. Eugene Meisinger.

Refreshments were served from a gaily decorated table. Games and dancing were enjoyed by the group in a room filled with reminders of the season.

The next morning the girls went on a hike and ended a most enjoyable celebration with a Weiner roast.

Helping Mrs. Meisinger were her daughters, Janice and Pat, and niece, Betty Kay Meisinger. Susie Hansen, scribe.

Obituary

Charles J. Vallery

Charles J. Vallery, son of Walter and Elizabeth Cook Vallery was born Dec. 10, 1893 on a farm near Murray where he grew to manhood.

He died Oct. 29 after an illness of 8 months of a heart condition. On April 28, 1920 he was married to Lottie Willis of Nehawka. They have one daughter, Mrs. Don (Betty) Mrasek of Murray.

They first made their home on a farm near Springfield, Nebr., after two years moved to Grant where he operated a store.

They moved to Plattsmouth in 1926 where he was in business until his retirement two years ago. In March 1961 he had a heart attack, and was hospitalized two months, returning to his home to recuperate. On Oct. 25 his condition grew worse and he died Sunday morning at his residence here.

His parents, two brothers and two sisters preceded him in death.

Surviving is the wife; the daughter; a grandson, Charles Roger Mrasek; a sister, Mrs. Owen Willis of Plattsmouth; several nieces and nephews.

He was a member of the First Christian Church of Plattsmouth. Funeral services were Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Caldwell-Linder Chapel, with the Rev. J. W. Taenzler officiating.

Mrs. Twyla Hodge was organist and Dale Wohlfarth was soloist.

Palbearers were Henry Hild Earl Kline, Carl Kraeger, Fred Rutherford, Bill Swatek and Arthur Wolph.

Flower bearers were Mrs. Lee Glenn and Miss Josephine Campbell. Interment was at Oak Hill Cemetery.

Cake Decorating Classes Begin

Cake decorating class met at Mrs. Mary Sullivan's home Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Sullivan, the teacher, demonstrated to members how to mix assorted colors and the process of cake decorating.

Members are Mrs. Georgia Gardner, Kay Michel, Mildred McCune, Ruth Crosseham, Louise Ham, Ruth Smith, Alam Rice, Clara Field, Joan Brown and Helen Cross. Louise Atkins and Virginia Kaffenberger were visitors.

Next class will be Nov. 15 at the home of Mrs. Sullivan.

Manley Has Pack And Troop Meeting

MANLEY—The October Meeting for Pack 93 and Troop 93 was held Oct. 23, at St. Patrick's Hall.

After the business meeting the Cubs displayed the paper mache masks they had made and painted.

The Scouts gave a report on the "See and Do" Camporee they attended near Memphis. They brought back two blue ribbons for their activities there.

Obituary

Albert Bruce Lloyd

Funeral services were held Oct. 28, in the Presbyterian Church at Murray, for Albert Bruce Lloyd, 72, of Avoca, who died suddenly while at work near his home.

The Rev. Joseph Barr officiated. Louis Sack sang accompanied by Mrs. Richard Sack.

Palbearers were Bill Johnson, Paul Van Ackern, Ray Gilsdorf, Harold Thoms, Ralph Lindsey, LeRoy Andrews, and the Honorary Palbearers were Bill Dettmer, Lester Heebner, John Rippe, Marion Pittman, John Lingle and Elmer Halstrom. Burial was in the Young cemetery near Murray.

Albert Bruce Lloyd, son of David and Catherine Lloyd was born June 3, 1889, at Murray. He was baptized and became a member of the Presbyterian Church at Murray. He grew up in the Murray community, and was a life long resident of Cass County.

Febr. 22, 1912, he was married to Beryl Smith, and they had two sons. His wife died March 28, 1920. On Jan. 6, 1929, he was married to Antonette Hauck of Humphrey.

He is survived by his wife, Antonette; a son, Douglas Maynard, of Lincoln; and his daughter-in-law, Ermal. He was preceded in death by his parents, a son and a granddaughter.

Justifying Nickers

It takes dissatisfaction to make efficient government.—Atchison Globe.

THOMAS WALLING CO.
Plattsmouth, Nebraska
Abstracts of Title
"Title Insurance"

ELASTIC STOCKINGS
go Feminine

Yes — as feminine as sheer nylons and as flattering to your legs — that's our new elastic stockings. You have to see them to believe their sheer beauty and leg-shape. The light, elasticized nylon thread provides the comfortable support that gives such welcome relief for tired, aching legs and varicose veins. Full-footed. Garter length. Washable. Fadeproof. Outwear ordinary stockings many times over. Only $4.95 per pair.

WE GIVE 5 & H GREEN STAMPS

FELDBOUSEN DRUGS

Your Friendly Drug Store
BRING US YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS — PHONE 6117

FIRST RATE or "CUT" RATE?

Any seller of a product or a service can "cut" prices by cutting corners in manufacture or attention to customer needs.

Isn't it best to insist on first rate rather than cut rate — on first rate merchandise and service?

How much more important this is to you in the matter of prescribed medicine than in anything else you buy.

Bring your prescriptions to us, confident of the finest professional service at the fairest prices — the only true standard for value.

Fred J. Feldhausen, Ph. G. R.P. and John DeMar B.S.-R.P.
Pharmacists in Charge

FELDBOUSEN DRUGS

Your Friendly Drug Store
BRING US YOUR PRESCRIPTIONS — PHONE 6117

650 Attended Halloween Howl

An estimated 650 Plattsmouth area teenagers turned out for the annual Halloween Howl sponsored and chaperoned by the Plattsmouth Jaycees.

The evening was spent dancing to the music of Johnny Ray Gomez and his U-Neeks plus records emceed by KOIL's Morning Mayor Frank Allen. Both Frank Allen and Johnny Ray Gomez expressed their surprise at such a large and appreciative audience.

Over 1,000 cups of soft drinks were served.

The annual Halloween Howl is designed to give the local teenagers a place to go on halloween evening so that their efforts can be used for fun and enjoyment.

High school students decorated the auditorium in the Halloween theme. Last Tuesday's turnout was the largest attendance ever for the annual event.

Again this year, many local businesses helped financially to give the youngsters of this area top entertainment with free admission and free refreshments.

For years a certain man had been absent from his old home town. When he returned for a visit, the first four people he met didn't know he had been away.

SAY YES!

GAS Light day

Tuesday, November 7
One Day Only

Your choice of these three popular models and many other styles of Arkla Gaslites

FLAIR MODEL 201      EMBASSY MODEL 1001      CABILDO MODEL 102

The $10.00 reduction on all Arkla Gaslites is offered for one day only. On November 7, call or stop at The Gas Company, and select a dependable Gas Light for your entrance, driveway, patio, lawn... wherever you need outdoor illumination.

Reduced price includes normal installation

Payments as low as $1.00 per month No carrying charge

Western Power & Gas Company
The Gas Company

Live Modern for Less... with GAS