Local Post Office Cited for Sale Of Savings Stamps

Postmaster Vern Hendricks of Plattsmouth today said he had received a letter from William H. Neal, National Director of the U. S. Savings Bond Program, commending the local post office for the promotion and sale of Savings Stamps during the past year.
"In this 20th anniversary year of the United States Savings Bond Program," the letter read, "Americans in all walks of life, in communities throughout the country, own more than $44 billion in Series E and H Savings Bonds—an all-time record. You have had a real share in this success, and we in the Treasury are grateful for your efforts over the years to promote the sale of Savings Stamps and Bonds in behalf of your country."
"In these critical times, the sale of Savings Stamps and Bonds affords young and old alike an opportunity to help their country as they help themselves. To the extent that we can increase our sales, to the same extent do we strengthen the foundations of our national economy, upon which rests our efforts to preserve the peace and promote the general welfare of all people."
"During the school year your help is especially needed to sponsor and service the School Savings Programs in your area. In this country as a whole, some six million students are now attending schools where the Stamp Plan is in operation. We would like to see this number increased substantially during the coming year."
Hendricks reminds the public that Savings Stamps are on sale at the post office at all times, as well as in the schools on Stamp Day. Adults can buy them, too, he added—"an easy way to buy Savings Bonds on the installment plan."

To Nebraskans . . .

... a glass of beer is many things

Folks from all over know there's nothing like a good Nebraska steak. Raised on the lush grasses of Nebraska west, finished out in the feed lots of eastern and central Nebraska . . . prize beef cattle furnish steaks that are juicy, tender and full of flavor. Eating like this is a symbol of the good life. And so is a glass of good beer.
But more than that, beer is an example of the freedoms Nebraskans hold so highly . . . a freedom to choose what YOU, as an individual, want. It is this sort of freedom, this sort of right which should belong to every man, everywhere.
