140 Attend Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cross

UNION (Special)—One of the outstanding gatherings of the season was held at the Methodist Church Dec. 31, when Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cross held "Open House" for their 50th wedding anniversary.

There were 140 guests. A five-tiered wedding cake baked by Mrs. Delbert Lindsey, centered the lace covered serving table, with golden tapers at each side of the cake.

Mrs. Lindsey and Mrs. John Christensen served the cake and ice cream, and coffee was served by several members of the family.

Members of the WSCS had charge of the kitchen. Mrs. Max Mason, Mrs. Richard Smith and Mrs. Gordon Smith had charge of the Punch Bowl. Mrs. Robert Smith and Miss Ellen Stine had charge of the gift book.

Nine of the guests had attended the Mougey-Cross wedding 50 years ago. Mrs. Earl Keedy of Ashland, had served as bridesmaid for Mrs. Cross and was one of the guests, Sunday.

The dining room was festive with several floral arrangements of yellow carnations and yellow chrysanthemums. The gift table

Dr. and Mrs. Neil Pettinger and family of Syracuse.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rudolph and family, spent last Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Spohn for the belated Christmas dinner near Beaver Crossing, Nebr.

Mrs. Fred Muenchau visited the Dr. last Tuesday and pleased to hear her back is doing okay. However she will continue to wear the brace for the needed medical attention and comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Eldon Crandall and family of Andrews, Texas visited at the homes of his aunts, and families, Henry Fleishmans and Harvey Gerhard's during his vacation and to visit his mother, Mrs. Bertha Crandall, of Lincoln, visiting at the above homes.

The Texas folks returned home on Tuesday, and his mother remained until Friday, at the Fleishman home.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Wm. Fischer (Ella) a former Eagle resident for several years as operator of a Cream and Produce Station until her failing health, following the death of her husband. Funeral services are pending for the locating of her relatives that are far distant.

Marie Hastie attended Auburn high school and graduated in 1914 then graduated from Peru Normal College in 1916. She taught school in Avoca, where she met Edward E. Lorenzen. They were married in Crete on the Doane College campus on June 15, 1920. They established their home on the Lorenzen farm, north of Weeping Water, where they lived a few years. Mr. Lorenzen then came to Weeping Water to manage the Farmers Union Co-operative. They have lived here since that time.

Three children were born to this union: Lyman Edward, Janice Ann and Mina Jane. Janice died July 24, 1935 at the age of six years. Lyman lives in Orinda, California and Jane Hock in Glenview, Illinois. Mrs. Lorenzen is survived by five grandchildren, Anna, Ingrid and Gilda Lorenzen, Gregory and Loraine Hock.

SNOW TOMORROW?
SEE THE SCOUT TODAY
Winter wonderlands won't worry or weary the new INTERNATIONAL SCOUT. Its 4-cylinder, 93-horsepower Comanche engine packs power aplenty to plow snow or push stalled cars. Front-mounted winch and 78-inch snow plow with hydraulic lift are winter-ready options built especially for the all-wheel-drive SCOUT.
Snug in the weathertight, all steel cab, warmed by a high-capacity fresh-air heater/defroster, you can laugh at winter's worst and keep on going. The SCOUT's 100-inch wheelbase is ideal for tight turns—a full circle in less than two lanes. And its 13-foot over-all length and 68-inch wide take less room in the cramped space plowing and winter servicing may allow.
