

Mrs. Vera Waga Presides At Auxiliary Meeting

The Dec. 29 meeting of the Auxiliary of Hugh J. Kearns Post Number 36 American Legion, was held in the clubrooms of the 40 and 8.

President Vera Waga presided over the business meeting, which was opened by the Pledge to the Flag.

Mrs. Mary Nelson, Americanism Committee Chairman, read a portion of an article from the current (January 1962) National News, entitled "Let Freedom Ring", by Opal Glynn.

Mrs. Virginia Schaik, Child Welfare Chairman, reported on the delivery of 20 fruit plates for Senior citizens and three baskets in the community. 2,189 coffee key strips were sent in by her. She reported on help from Hinky Dinky and the Senior Women's Club in filling the baskets.

In December four workers spent a day working at the Veterans Hospital, two on escort duty and two at central station.

The motion was made and passed to purchase four additional ABC books for use by Committee Chairmen as a help and guide in carrying out the year's program.

Motion was made and carried to subscribe to the Legislative Bulletin and have it sent to the Secretary to be reported upon at meetings by her and other members from time to time.

A get-well card was signed by all present for Mary Pittman. Helen Kalasek gave her thanks for the card which she received when ill recently.

A prayer closed the meeting. A New Year's motif was used for the table decorations and refreshments were served by Vera Waga, Sophia Wolever, and Verna Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. Ostrom are parents of two girls and a baby boy.

They have purchased the Richard Tincher property at 1604 Valley, and have taken possession. Mr. and Mrs. Ostrom are members of the Methodist Church.

Shower Honors Visiting Bride

The Presbyterian Church parlors here was the setting of a bridal shower honoring Mrs. Robert Alan Beverage.

Mrs. Beverage, the former Linda Arlene Williams, was married at Fort Holabird Post Chapel to Robert Beverage Dec. 16.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bard Williams, Sr., Fort Meyers, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage of Plattsmouth.

After the wedding, the couple came to Nebraska for their honeymoon trip and to spend the holidays here with relatives and friends.

Hostesses at the bridal shower Thursday evening were Mrs. Peter Nettelmann, Mrs. Robert Williams and Mrs. B. W. Adams. The serving table was covered in an imported hand embroidered linen cloth appointed by a wedding cake and candles. Cake, ice cream, punch, coffee, mints and nuts were served.

Mrs. Adams presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Nettelmann served cake and Mrs. Williams poured coffee. The bride received many lovely gifts.

The honoree, who has been studying voice at Peabody Conservatory School of Music in Baltimore, favored the group with two solos. Mrs. Olin Morris of Murray was accompanist.

The shower date also marked the 34th wedding date of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beverage.

The couple departed after the holidays for Fort Holabird to complete Mr. Beverage's schooling, and they expect a transfer to Washington, D. C., after that time.

Rings and Vows Exchanged By Sharon Davis and James Bulin

The First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Dec. 24 afternoon wedding of Miss Sharon Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Davis of Louisville, and Mr. James Bulin son of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Bulin of Plattsmouth.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Dr. A. B. Lentz of the Christ Lutheran Church of Louisville assisted by the Rev. Robert O. McLeod, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

Baskets of white chrysanthemums and snapdragons and candleabra decorated the church altar. White satin bows with greenery marked the pews. Lighting the tapers were Dennis Kell and Bradley Bourne.

Miss Jane Fauquet sang, accompanied by Mrs. George Jacobs, organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of bouquet taffeta featuring a fitted bodice shirred at each side; a pearl and sequin jeweled lace yoke, and long tapered sleeves.

The swag-draped skirt was finished at either side with a handmade rose. These roses were repeated at the waistline in back flowing into a chapel length train. Her elbow-length veil of English illusion was draped to a lace cap, featuring an aurora crystal crown. She carried a cascade of white roses.

Karyl Davis, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Nancy Bulin, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. They wore identical dresses of holly red, peau de soie. The short sleeved bodice, featuring a sabbina neckline, closed in back with tiny covered buttons. The princess style skirt fashioned with shaped gores was accented by a wide box-pleat in back. They wore red accessories and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

Denise Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Davis was flower girl. Robbie Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Meisinger, was ringbearer.

Bill Sullivan was best man. Groomsman was Tom Winscott. Ushering were Don Williams, Chuck Bennett of Bellevue and Warren Hill of Seward.

The bride's mother wore a moss green sheath of silk organza with brown accessories and white rose corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a Nile green sheath of boucle, trimmed in satin with matching hat, harmonizing accessories and a white rose corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Raymond Bourne cut and served the wedding cake baked and decorated by Mrs. Harlan Hennings.

Mrs. David Meisinger served ice cream; Miss Ruth Ann Sprick of Louisville served coffee and Miss June Wagner served punch.

Mrs. Loren Duever had charge of the guest book. Assisting with the gifts were the Misses Dorothy Farris and Shirley Waga.

Mrs. Bulin chose a garnet red wool sheath and a plaid collarless coat with black accessories for her going-away ensemble.

The couple will live at 1212 South 24th Street, Lincoln.

The bride, a graduate of Plattsmouth Schools, is employed at State Farm Mutual Insurance Co., Lincoln.

The bridegroom, also a Plattsmouth graduate, is attending the University of Nebraska, majoring in mechanical engineering.
