

WSWS of Mynard EUB Has Meeting

The WSWS of the Mynard EUB Church held its January meeting at the church with Mrs. Wayne Hendrix and Mrs. Leonard Harvey as co-hostesses.

The worship service and the lesson, "Venture into Latin America" were given by Mrs. Arthur Toman and Mrs. Willis Cole. The lesson provided a general background for the study of Latin America which will be the lesson theme for the next three months.

Mrs. Wayne Hendrix sang a Brazilian Folk song while the offering was taken. The leaders had prepared Latin American cookies and a drink to add atmosphere to the lesson.

Mrs. Willis Cole, local activities chairman, distributed holiday plates to those present and explained their use.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. Harold Onwiler was honored at a surprise pink and blue shower.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Golden Rod Study Club Reviews 'State Sacrifices'

The Golden Rod Study Club met at Consumers Jan. 11. Hostesses were Mrs. Guy Wiles, Mrs. Alice Perry and Mrs. Glenn Wiles. Due to her absence from the city Mrs. Perry could not be present.

The president, Mrs. Arthur Wetenkamp, opened the meeting by reading a prayer for peace in the New Year.

She introduced Mrs. Glenn Lutz who gave a review of the "sacrifices that built our state," using excerpts from "The History of Nebraska," a book published in 1882. This book was donated to the historical museum by the Luke Wiles family.

The review started with Coronado the first explorer and led down through the years to the trials of the settlers during the Civil War when the majority stood firm with the Union, the grasshopper scourge in the 70's and many other tests of determination and courage.

The president opened the business session by reading the constitution of the club. Since most of the members' ancestors were pioneers of this community, roll call was answered by relating incidents of those early days. Twelve members were present and three guests, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. Ralph Wiles and Mrs. Clark Wiles.

A letter of thanks was received from the Nebraska Children's Home for the $10 realized from the cookie sale in December. Also a "thank you" note from the Livingston family for assistance rendered by the club at the time of their recent bereavement.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

YOUR BIGGEST BARGAIN

Yes... ELECTRICITY... is today's best buy for better living. While the cost of living has gone up, the average price per kilowatt hour of electricity has gone down! At rates that are among the lowest in the nation, the average Nebraska home uses three to four times as much electricity as it did in 1942. Is it any wonder why so many Nebraskans are switching to "ALL-ELECTRIC" living? Why don't you?
