Bud of Promise Lodge Here Has Installation Meeting

Installation of officers was the highlight at the meeting of the Bud of Promise Rebekah Lodge Monday night at the IOOF Hall. Edith Akeson, Noble Grand opened the meeting, with a very large attendance present. Members were from various lodges in Omaha and three members from Plattsmouth. Elva Aylor, Mary Nelson and Margaret Carr were on the installing staff. This group is the district team, and has been installing new officers.

In a very impressive ceremony by the installing team who were dressed in gowns of green and pink, the following were installed as the new officers of Bud of Promise lodge for 1962:

Unable to be present were Irma Johnson, Right Supporter to the Noble Grand; Wilma Rice, Outside Guardian; Roy Carey and Warren Manoran, Attendants to the Chaplain, and Fred Vincent, and Dr. Joe Sibbal, Attendants to the past Noble Grand. These officers will be installed and seated at the next meeting.

The Noble Grand will also announce her committees at the next meeting. The business session was led by the new Noble Grand. Communications were read. The retiring Noble Grand presented gifts to her officers, and Secretary Elva Aylor presented the past Noble Grand's jewel to the retiring officer.
