

Eagles Auxiliary Plans District Meeting Here

Plans for the district meeting marked the meeting of the Eagles Auxiliary Thursday night at the Eales Hall.

Madam president Hazel Laboda presided at the business session to a good attendance of the membership.

Due to the absence of the Chaplain and Past Madam president, the chairs were filled by Helen Jordan and Anna Schubeck.

Balloting was conducted on a large group of prospective members, with all elected to membership, following the report of the investigating committee. The candidates will be initiated at the district meeting here Sunday, Feb. 25. An initiating staff from Omaha will conduct the ceremony.

Dorothy Hobbs, chairman of the visiting committee, announced Donna Kern was a patient at a hospital in Nebraska City, and Mary McFarlane had undergone surgery overseas, and would soon be returning to the states.

Among the communications received was a letter from the Kearney auxiliary with an invitation to attend a meeting and entertainment Feb. 11 at Kearney.

Plans for the Eagle state bowling tournament are being completed at North Platte where the tournament will be held, with an invitation from Bernadine Newman, state chairman, for the Plattsmouth Auxiliary to attend.

Membership chairman Irene Smith, reported that quota was over double, with credit due Helen Morgan who signed nine new members, for the auxiliary. Honey Cole, co-captain on the membership team, is becoming reconciled to the extent of planning the dinner for the losing team. Members who sign up a prospective candidate during February and March, will each receive a chance on one year's dues in the auxiliary.

Tillie Strange on the Ways and Means Committee reports a hundred more key strips have been collected and will be sent to the company conducting a campaign, that awards gifts for this project.

Dorothy Janacek, reported on a fund raising project that is being planned by the aerie and auxiliary, at the district meeting. Mrs. Janacek also reported on delinquency of which she is chairman. Honey Cole on the entertainment committee reported on the cake walk and of the proceeds.

Sophia Wolever reported on the plans for the bulletin that is to be prepared by the committee comprised of Ann Schubeck, Dorothy Janacek and Mrs. Wolever. The bulletin will contain news items concerning the aerie and auxiliary.

Charter members and past madam presidents will be honored at the next meeting Thursday, Feb. 15, and all members are urged to attend. An officers' meeting will precede the regular session.

Meeting closed according to ritual, and a special session for officers was held. Menu for the district meeting was planned. Marge Willis is chairman of the dinners and banquets for the group. Several distinguished guests are to attend the district meeting.

Lunch was served by the auxiliary to the aerie and auxiliary in the lounge room.
