PHS Frosh Bow in 4th, 54-44, Here

Plattsmouth High's Freshman basketball team lost a fourth-quarter run for the tape in a 54-44 loss to Nebraska City's Freshmen here Thursday.

The Blue Devil yearlings were down only 34-33 after three quarters but couldn't match Milt Romjue's 10-point output in the fourth quarter. Romjue scored 26. He got 24 earlier in the season when Nebraska City won by 20 points on its home court.

Leland Pritchard and Bob McClanahan got 10 each for Plattsmouth and Roger Lanum scored 9.

Plattsmouth trailed 21-29 at halftime but got into contention in the third by holding the visitors to six points.

Next for Coach Cecil McKnight and his PHS Frosh is a game at Glenwood, Iowa, Thursday at 4 p.m.

24 Per Cent Field Goal Percentage Hurts

Plattsmouth High basketball Coach Lowell Johnson gave fans a look at a new starting lineup here Friday night but the Blue Devils lost their ninth game in 11 starts, 71-48.

Falls City administered the beating in a ragged game marked by much whistle-tooting for various reasons, most justified.

The new Devil starters showed a lot of hustle but made some costly mechanical errors.

At the start, only Dan Schultz of the previous starting cores was in the lineup. With him were Bill and Dave Nettelmann, Butch McGraw and Roger Lanum.

They played most of the first half and had trouble finding field goal range. Falls City led 19-10 and 34-17 at the first two stops, then poured it on with a 20-9 third-quarter margin.

Plattsmouth just didn't shoot goals well enough to stay in contention. Output was two each the first two quarters, three the third.

A 22-point fourth period saved face a little.

For the game, Plattsmouth hit 15 out of 66 field goals tries for 24 per cent—most of those shots being from medium or long range.

Falls City earned 42 per cent, 25 out of 60. Ben Maze who led with 19 points got 7 out of 19.

Lanum with 3 for 8 and Scott with 5 for 12, paced Plattsmouth with 11 points apiece. Other field goal marks were: Schultz, 1 for 2; Bill Nettelmann, 1 for 3; Beverage, 2 for 10; Campbell, 2 for 11; Dave Nettelmann, 1 for 4; Corky Adkins, 1 for 1; McGraw, 0 for 8; Tom Smith, 0 for 4; Fred Groce, 0 for 2 and McClanahan, 0 for 1.

The Blue Devils lost the ball 18 times on infractions, compared to only nine for Falls City. Plattsmouth led in rebounds, 30 to 21. Beverage with 9 and Schultz with 7 were high.

Next for the Devils is a toughie at Ralston Friday night.

Reserves Post 5th Win, 48-42

Clutch play in the fourth quarter carried Plattsmouth High's Reserve basketball team to a 48-42 victory over Falls City here Friday night.

It was a tight game. Plattsmouth led 12-10 at the quarter, 27-23 at the half and 31-30 at the end of three quarters.

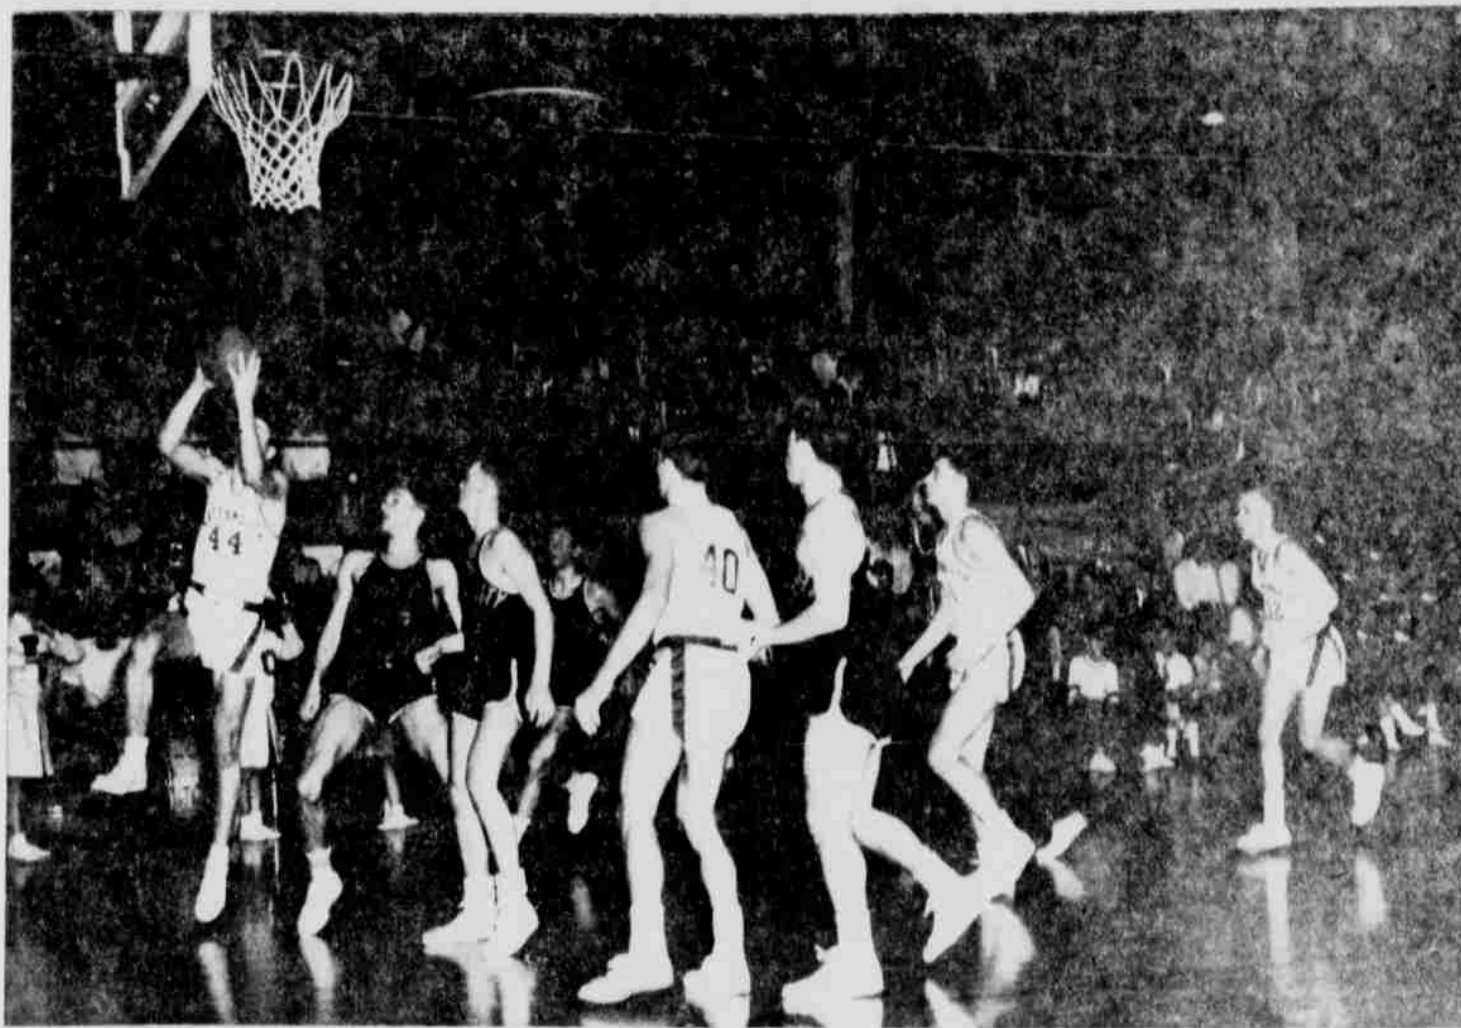

Roger Heedum and Lloyd Hamilton each scored five in the fourth quarter and Leland Pritchard got four.

Bob McClanahan fouled out in the fourth period but was high scorer with 14. Pritchard got 10 and Heedum nine.

The win was the fifth in 12 games for Coach Robert Medina's team.

Murdock Wins 16th in Mustang Meet Preview

Murdock High prepped for the Mustang Conference Basketball tournament beginning at Elmwood tonight, by taking a 76-58 conference decision from Nehawka at Murdock Friday night.

The game was a preview of another meeting of the teams Tuesday.

There was never any doubt about the outcome. Murdock was ahead 19-11 at the quarter, 42-29 at the half and 67-43 at the end of three quarters.

John Roeber scored 26 and Jim Panska 25 to pace the win. Derald Jones led Nehawka with 16.

Tournament pairings at Elmwood: Tonight—Palmyra vs. Malcolm, 7:45.

Tuesday—Murdock vs. Nehawka, 7; Elmwood vs. Palmyra-Malcolm winner, 8:30.

Wednesday—Sprague-Martel vs. Bennet, 7; Eagle Alvo vs. Avoca, 8:30.

Semifinals are Thursday, finals Friday.

A Mustang Conference volleyball tournament is to run concurrently.
