'Heart Disease Is Your No. 1 Enemy'

"Heart diseases threaten your own health and the welfare of your family. The Nation's No. 1 health enemy strikes not only the elderly but also the wage earner, the housewife and the child. As a Heart Fund volunteer and contributor you play a vital role in helping friends and neighbors understand why heart disease is every family's problem and what they can do about it. "Heart disease is your No. 1 enemy.
"Your Heart Fund is your No. 1 defense."
These thoughts were given here by Heart Drive Committee women.
Feb. 1, Heart Fund Containers were placed in the business establishments of Plattsmouth, "so you can make your contribution as you shop."
"Americans are spending countless millions of dollars to help combat the effects of the heart diseases, but not nearly enough to speed research seeking the means of prevention," fund leaders say.
"Increased support of the Heart Fund now will aid scientists engaged in research that promises to cut down premature death and disability from the cardiovascular diseases. Delays needlessly jeopardize human lives, health and security. More funds are urgently needed now to power the conquest of our nation's No. 1 health enemy," they say.
Mrs. Russell Schalk is County Heart Fund Chairman as well as Chairman for Plattsmouth. The Plattsmouth Civic Woman's Club is sponsoring the Fund Drive.

In 1961 in the United States, 40,000 persons were killed and over a million injured, from a few minutes to permanent injuries for an entire lifetime, he said.
He said for better safety on our highways the beginning should be in the HOME with the parents using and enforcing strict law enforcement rules for safe driving for every member of the family.
The business meeting was called to order by President Mrs. William Heinrich. The Pledge of Allegiance led by Mrs. Woolcott, and Club Woman's Collect was read in unison.

1962 ACP County Aid Described

The ASC County Committee, with the aid of the County Development Group have again provided a good Agricultural Conservation Program for all farm owners or operators in Cass County for 1962, a spokesman said today.
"The Agricultural Conservation Program is a cost-sharing partnership between farmers and the government, designed to conserve and protect our natural resources of soil, water, and woodland and keep them productive for generations to come," he said.
"The Cass ASC County Committee is striving to help every farmer in Cass County to make the most effective use possible of the assistance available through the ACP program in solving his soil and water conservation problems. In order to reach this objective most effectively, we need the support of everyone that is dedicated to promoting a strong, vigorous, and progressive agriculture as a vital link in the nation's strength."
"Now is the time to make a survey to decide the conservation needs of your farm, then check the practices that have been made available to aid you in attaining these needs, if cost-sharing is needed."
Practices available for cost-sharing in Cass County for 1962 are:
A-2—Establishment of permanent cover.
A-3—Vegetative cover for crop rotation.
A-4—Treatment of cropland.
A-7—Tree and shrub planting for forestry purposes.

C-1—Sod Waterways.
C-4—Gradient and level terraces.
C-5—Diversions.

All farm owners or operators will receive an ACP County Handbook that will explain all of the available practices and the cost-share payments, in the near future.
"If you have any conservation needs or problems, we urge you to call at the Cass ASC County Office, and discuss these problems with us," a committeeman said.
Requests for cost-sharing for the 1962 program, which must be filed before the practice is started, are being accepted in the Cass ASC County Office located at Weeping Water.
"We hope that you will find this program, developed for you, adequate for the needs of your farms in Cass County," the ASC County Committee said.
