ELMWOOD (Special)—The Elmwood Garden Club met at the home of Susie Cook with 13 present.

Edna Fleischman brought samples of moss and lichens which she found at her home. Various other plants were studied.

Mrs. Cook served refreshments.

ALVO (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Rueter celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Feb. 22.

The 18th their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Voigtman of Jefferson, Iowa, son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Rueter and David of Lincoln, and Elmer Rueter took the parents out for dinner in Lincoln.

The Rueter children gave their parents a gold family tree with all the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren's pictures on it, also two bouquets of golden roses and each a gold watch.

Attend Funeral of Mrs. Ruby Druery

AVOCA (Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Silas Everett, Mrs. Leona Bogard, Mrs. Lester Heebner attended funeral services for Mrs. Ruby Druery at Plattsmouth Saturday.

Mrs. Druery was born at Plattsmouth but lived most of her life in Avoca, living at Auburn after her marriage to Jonas Druery from 1914 to 1920.

After her husband's death she again came here to live with her children.

She is survived by her children, Paul, Louisville, Mrs. Emma Druery, Independence, Mo., Mrs. Frances Rathbun, Murray, one sister Mrs. Elsie Pomroy, Lexington.

Services were directed by Elder Elvin Coolman of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Four Square Club

MURDOCK (Special)—The Four Square Club met at the Herman Wendt home on Thursday afternoon.

Eleven members and two visitors were present.

The program was patriotic in celebration of Washington's birthday.

The lesson was on cake decorating and Elsie Wendt had baked and decorated a cake which later was presented to Mrs. August Reike as they were celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary. She was pleasantly surprised.

Lunch was served later.

ENGAGED—Mrs. Marion Younghein of Mitchell announces the engagement of her daughter, Sharon, to Dale W. Kunz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kunz of Elmwood. Miss Russell received a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics at mid-term commencement exercises at the University of Nebraska. An April 28 wedding at Mitchell is being planned.

RLDS Women

The Women of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, held their regular meeting Feb. 23.

Mrs. Helen Steeby was in charge.

Alyce Green gave the devotion and presented the first lesson from the new study book, "Ten Considerations For Family Living."

Plans were made for a food and bake sale March 3.

Also discussed were a covered dish luncheon and time for work to prepare for a rummage sale in the near future.

Blossom Yelick will be March hostess.

PRACTICE TEACHING

Heebner Malones Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

EAGLE (Special)—Feb. 25, the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Heebner Malone was observed with open house at the Eagle Methodist Church, with approximately 200 relatives and guests attending.

Rosalie Ostrander, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malone, was in charge of the guest book.

Rev. John Bartleson, pastor of the church led in Prayer and extended congratulations to the honored couple.

Several musical numbers were presented by their grandchildren. Songs were selected by Mr. and Mrs. Malone in keeping with the era of 1912 and the traditional theme.

The gift table was attended by Mmes Richard Ostrander, Harvey, Hutton, both of Lincoln and Marilyn Huslig, of Mead, Kans.

The serving table was centered with the beautiful tiered wedding cake, decorated with yellow rose buds, crowned at the top with the "50th Year."

Receptionists were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Ostrander of Lincoln.

Mrs. Lloyd Ostrander of Lincoln, daughter of the Malones, cut the cake, assisted by Mmes. Harry Reuter, of Sterling, Nebr., and Mrs. Elvin Malone of Palmyra.

Mrs. Lester Dovel, sister of Mrs. Malone, poured punch and Mrs. Wm. Hutton, daughter of the honor couple, poured coffee.

Mmes. Frank Frohlich, Dale Stall, Carl Oberle and Clyde Hutton, were in charge of the kitchen with the Misses Diane Ostrander, Judy Oberle and Velene Stall assisting.

Jake Schuster, 97, father of Mrs. Malone, was the only relative who also attended the wedding ceremony 50 years ago - due to the blizzard conditions on that day and he now lives at the Malone home.

The couple was married in Tecumseh.

Guests registering Sunday afternoon were from Lincoln, Eagle, Nebraska City, Unadilla, Dunbar, Douglas, Crete, Davey, Sterling, Palmyra Nebraska and Mead, Kansas.

Quarryman Injured At Weeping Water

WEeping WATER (Special)—Floyd (Pat) Bauers was taken to the St. Mary's hospital in Nebraska City Tuesday afternoon. He suffered serious injuries in an accident at Hopper Brothers Quarry in the afternoon.

A large conveyor belt, loaded with rock had refused to start. He was under the belt and was pulling on the return belt trying to get it started. The conveyor belt snapped in the middle and the entire structure fell on Pat, pinning him to the ground.

His brother, Richard Bauers, used a loader to lift the conveyor belt. Several of the men were able to get him from beneath the machinery. Dr. L. N. Kunkel was called and he was rushed to the hospital by ambulance.

He received a badly crushed right leg, (he had this same leg broken before) severe body bruises. He remained in critical condition for some time.

Eugene Lorenson was also in the accident but was fortunate to get out with cuts and bruises. He was not hospitalized.

Nina Khrushchev, Wife of the Premier of Russia: "War must not be allowed to break out. This can be done through general disarmament under strict international control."
