Russell Nielsen Gives Devotions At Jr.-Sr. PTA

The March meeting of the Junior-Senior High PTA was held in the Central School Cafeteria Monday.

Meeting was opened with the singing of "America".

Russell Nielsen was in charge of the devotions for the evening. He introduced Tom Smith, who read the poem, "Saint Peter Relates An Incident of the Resurrection Day" by James Weldon Johnson. Portions of the poem were sung by the high school boys sextette.

The meeting was called to order by president Mrs. Al Hansen. She led the group in repeating the objects of the Parent-Teacher Association.

Membership chairman, Mrs. Clarley Christensen, reported there are now 178 members.

Mrs. Sheldon Smith and Mrs. Peter Nettelmann were elected by the group to serve on the nominating committee. Robert Humphrey, elected by the executive committee, was named chairman.

Notice was given by Mrs. Hansen that the by-laws are to be revised and these revisions will be voted on at the April meeting.

Prepared sheets on the proposed legislation program for 1962-63 were distributed to all members present. Mrs. George Toothaker explained each item and members were asked to vote and return the sheets to her.

Several announcements were made by the president. City election will be held Tuesday, April 3. She urged every one to vote.

Next regular meeting of the Jr.-Sr. PTA will be Monday, April 9 in the Central Cafeteria at 7:30 p.m.

The state PTA convention will be held in Omaha May 3-4. More information will be given at the April meeting.

Robert Humphrey was the speaker for the evening. Mr. Humphrey is a guidance counselor for the junior high and high school. He explained the difference between guidance and counseling and why we have it. He described the program used in our school and what facilities are available and then told of some of the improvements which have been recommended.

The aim of the counseling program is to help the students, rationally, socially and emotionally and to help each student to understand himself and his problems.

Mrs. Hansen closed the meeting by reading several thoughts taken from the Nebraska PTA Magazine.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell McQueen, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Newson, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Schaik, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Koubek.

Greeters for the evening were Mrs. Charley Christensen and Mrs. Delmott Heudum.
