Callahan Community Church Southwest of Murdock

Edmund Neubauer Is Pastor of Callahan Church near Murdock

Mr. Edmund Neubauer is the new pastor of the Callahan Community Church near Murdock, Nebraska. Mr. Neubauer has been serving the church since September, 1961.
After driving in from Omaha for a number of weeks, Mr. Neubauer was offered by the church to move to the George Buell farm with his family, where he could serve the church full time, while attending classes at Grace Bible Institute at Omaha.
Mr. Neubauer was born in Poland although he is of German descent. After the German troops invaded Poland (Sept., 1939), he and his parents were evacuated to German territory. In 1942, he was drafted into the German army spending about three years in France and Italy.
In 1945 Mr. Neubauer was captured in Italy by the British, and as a prisoner, was transferred to Egypt. During that time a theatre group was organized consisting of prisoners of war, for the purpose of entertaining prisoners in which Mr. Neubauer took active part. This permitted him to learn about the condition of other prisoners.
After 1½ years, Mr. Neubauer with about 1,000 other prisoners, was transferred to the Island of Cyprus where he spent an additional two years as a prisoner of war. There he came in contact with some fine Christian men who urged him to evaluate his life and the purpose of his existence. Mr. Neubauer says, "At that time (Feb., 1948) I made the greatest decision of my life—choosing Jesus Christ as my Savior."

Spearmen, Archers Take after Fish

LINCOLN—Both game and non-game fish went on the firing line Sunday when the state's bow-and-arrow and spearing seasons opened. The Game Commission reports. Hook-and-line fishing for all species is open the year-round.
All fish may be taken by bow and arrow from April 1 to Dec. 1, from sunrise to sunset.
At the present time, Ron Meyers of Lincoln holds the two state archery records. He shot a 29-pound carp at the Alexandria Recreation Grounds on May 30, 1961, and 15½-pound gar at Linoma Beach near Ashland on July 1, 1960.
The spearing season also runs from April 1 to Dec. 1, from sunrise to sunset, but only non-game fish can be taken. The most popular non-game fish for spearing is the carp. There is an abundance of this species nearly everywhere in the state. One of the prime spots for spearing carp is on the Platte River during mid-summer.
Both bow and arrow and spear fishing get the best results when the activity is done in shallow, clear water with the fish near the surface. Some game fish which are shot include the bass, sunfish, and crappie.

Nebraska Banks Show '61 Growth

Federal Reserve member banks in Nebraska experienced a substantial growth in total deposits and in total loans during 1961, according to reports of condition released by the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City.
Demand deposits at the banks increased $19 million and time deposits expanded $53 million during the year. This was a 34 per cent gain in time deposits and was the largest recorded in recent years for member banks in Nebraska.

The growth in deposits coincided with a strong demand for loans, and banks increased the size of their loan portfolios by $53 million. Major gains were recorded in loans to businesses of $13 million, nonguaranteed loans to farmers of $21 million, and single-payment loans to individuals of $15 million.

Although this expansion in loans was quite strong, deposit growth was sufficiently large to allow Nebraska member banks also to increase their investments by $30 million. The banks, in general, directed their purchases to the shorter maturity issues of the Federal Government and to state and municipal bonds.

John F. Kennedy, President:
"In the absence of a firm agreement that would halt nuclear tests by the latter part of April, we shall go ahead with our talks—striving for some new avenue of agreement—but we shall also go ahead with our tests."
