Kids: Last Call

Boys aged 7 through 14 years wishing to participate in the Chamber of Commerce Summer Base Ball Recreation Program are urged to get their applications into the Chamber office as soon as possible.

Application blanks were distributed through the local schools several weeks ago. They are to be filled out as indicated, signed by a parent and placed in the hands of the Chamber together with a one dollar ($1) registration fee.

Ray Simmons, general manager, of the program, is getting team managers and teams lined up and must have all registrations as soon as possible. Cleaning up of the ball diamond, flooded by back waters recently, will get underway as soon as ground has dried out.
