

Surprise Dinner.
Get-together
Honors Wm. Spradlin

Saturday evening at the high school auditorium a surprise pot-luck get-together was held for Bill Spradlin former Scoutmaster of Troop 359. The Spradlin family have recently moved to Bellevue.

At Hansen brought Bill to the auditorium where he found 150 scouts, their families, and people who have worked with Bill in scouting had gathered, and upon his entrance everyone sang "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

After everyone finished eating, John Rishel was master of ceremonies and introduced Hilarie Perez who presented Mr. Spradlin with a self portrait which Mr. Perez had drawn.

David Reed presented Mrs. Spradlin with a "Thanks" Boy Scout emblem pin and a gift was also given to Mrs. Spradlin by Calvin McDanel on behalf of the scouts, parents, and committees.

Mrs. Lloyd Fitch told of the many good deeds and favors Mrs. Spradlin has done for the scouts and friends. Mrs. Fitch then placed a crown on Mrs. Spradlin's head.

Ray Story thanked Bill for his endless time, loyalty and devotion given the Scouts in Plattsmouth and told of his interest and work with youth throughout his life. Mr. Story also read a telegram received from Father Bob Hudson to Bill for the occasion.

There was a short program in which Gary Way, Billy Rishel, Lloyd Fitch and John Clويد played several band numbers. Susan Hansen did a tee tap dance.

Mike McGuire, Omaha Scout Executive, was the speaker for the evening.

Lloyd Fitch played taps after which Rev. Harold Onwiler gave the benediction closing the program.

Omaha Principal
To Speak To
PTA Group Here

Merton Hall, principal of McMillan Junior High School in Omaha, will be the speaker at the April meeting of the Jr.-Sr. PTA Monday, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the Central School cafeteria.

Hall will speak on "Needs of Youth." He will discuss some of the problems which arise and the adjustments the students must make when going from the 6th grade into junior high and from the 8th grade into high school.

Everyone is urged to attend this final meeting of the Jr.-Sr. PTA for this year.

A special invitation is extended to the parents of all 6th graders and also to the parents of 8th graders now attending rural schools.

Attend Funeral
At Lee's Summit

Mrs. M. E. Allen and her son Leonard Glen and her daughter, Mrs. Pearl O. Stivers, have just returned home from Lee's Summit, Mo., where they attended the grave-side services of Ralph H. Allen, son of Mrs. Allen.

Ralph H. Allen, resident of Springfield, Oregon, died March 23 at the age of 67 years and one day. Services at Lee's Summit were March 30.

He is survived by his wife, Lora E. Allen; daughter, Mrs. Russell Lee Arthur of Monterey, Calif.; his mother, Mrs. M. B. Allen; brother, Leonard G. Allen, both of Plattsmouth; Wayne H. Allen of Omaha; Delbert M. Allen, Raytown, Mo.; Donald F. Allen, Coronado, Calif.; and his sister, Mrs. J. L. (Pearl) Stivers of Auburn.

He was a veteran of World War One, Company 1-1680 Infantry, Rainbow Division.

Registration fee will be $1 per person attending one or more sessions at the convention.

The banquet will be held Tuesday in the ballroom, recognition of Junior Clubwomen to be held at that time.

Mrs. Hugh Slender Jr. is state director of Juniors. Mrs. Stander is also president of the Plattsmouth Women's Civic Club.

Anyone wishing to attend can contact Mrs. Stander for more information. Several outstanding speakers will address the convention. Mrs. Win. H. Hasbrook 2nd vice president of the FWC Clubs will speak April 9 on "Today's Faith-Tomorrow's Fulfillment."

April 10, the address in the afternoon will be delivered by Mrs. Louise Bushnell, director Women's Department, National Association of Manufacturers. The topic of her address will be "Equality before the Law," and at the banquet Mrs. Dexter O. Arnold, 1st vice president of the GFWC of Concord, N. H., will address the group on "No Ceiling on Miracles."

Bill Meyers, associate director of the Peace Corps will address the group at the luncheon April 11.

Several members of the Plattsmouth Civic Club plan to attend, among them are the delegates, Mrs. Russell Senick and Mrs. Howard Ruback, Alternates Miss Naomi Day, and Mrs. Don Wozniak. Mrs. Stander will attend as state director of Juniors.

Allen, and a member of his company, attended the services. Mr. Kuras is a former resident of Plattsmouth, now residing in Kansas City, Mo.
