Bobby Fuller, 12, Bowls 261 In Jr. League

Bobby Fuller, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fuller, Saturday bowled 261 for the highest league game ever posted by a junior leaguer here.

It was also the second high game of the season in league bowling at the Bowlero, Don Eaton of the men's Wednesday Night League hit 264 earlier this season.

Bobby, a second-year bowler, totaled 600 even with 138 and 201 games sandwiched around his big effort. It was the first 600 in the Junior League.

In the big game, Bobby hit seven strikes, had an open frame and finished with three strikes the last two frames.

Leo's Barber Shop leads the league which has another week to run. Bobby's Culligan team is in second place.
