

Plattsmouth Clubs Represented At Tri-County Work Shop

Mrs. J. G. McMaken, Mrs. W. L. Heinrich of the Plattsmouth Woman's Club and Mrs. Hugh Stander Jr., of the Plattsmouth Civic Club, attended the Tri-County Work Shop of First District NFWC at Douglas on Monday. The meeting was held in the Methodist Church and some 40 members, representing clubs from Cass, Otoe and Lancaster counties registered—despite the rainstorms which were encountered enroute.

Mrs. Calvin Sterns, Raymond, president of First District, presided. Her welcoming thought was "Progress is the activity of today and the assurance of tomorrow" (Emerson). Mrs. Harry Hust, District Parliamentarian, of Lincoln opened the session with tips on parliamentary procedure, stating that "parliamentary law is simply the courteous manner of conducting a meeting."

The group heard news from the County Presidents, and Mrs. Fred C. Naber, Syracuse, second vice president of the district, introduced the District Chairmen, who spoke on their particular departments, which included American Resources and Conservation, Mrs. Alvin Flink, Syracuse; Education ESO and Library, Miss Thelma Markey, Walton; Art, Penny Art and Crafts, Mrs. Martin Nissen, Raymond; Home Religion and Family Living, Mrs. Carl Georges, Shubert; Citizenship Legislation and Indian Affairs, Mrs. Kenneth McDonnell, Greenwood; National Defense, Safety, Welfare, Health and Gerontology, Mrs. Ernest Overton, Nebraska City; Historian is Mrs. Landis Rulla, Sterling; Mrs. Harold Brueman, Douglas, newly appointed District director of Juniors was heard as was the state Director Mrs. Don Kolterman of Seward. A panel discussion on Leadership proved most interesting.

Following the luncheon at noon, Miss Dorothy Baus, district treasurer from Bennet, talked on "Dollars and Sense." Mrs. Sterns used the topic "What's New for '62" stressing the five projects of the NFWC on the district and local level—they are CARE (also a GFWC project); Penny Art, Interna-
